

The Episcopal Church in South Carolina

224th Annual Diocesan Convention

“The World to Christ We Bring”

CONVENTION WORKSHOP

Friday, November 14, 2015 at 10:00 am

Calvary Episcopal Church, 104 Line St., Charleston

This workshop is offered to clergy and lay people all over the diocese. We invite everyone to attend! Episcopalians from every congregation in the diocese will find rewarding, helpful and inspiring messages to take home to their parishes, missions and worship communities. The Rev. Tom Brackett will teach us how to say yes to the Spirit in our congregations. Particular matters of focus which Tom has suggested include these shifts in congregational life: from concentration on survival to mission and from generating agreement to commitment. We will look at ways to engage mission in our neighborhood today and to hope and dream for the future.

The Rev. Tom Brackett

The Rev. Thomas L. Brackett is the Episcopal Church Center's Missioner for Church Planting, Ministry Redevelopment and Fresh Expressions of church. Tom has been passionate about lively communities of faith for twenty-eight years of ordained life. He has led two church plants and started several new ministries within existing parishes. He is certified as a Coach and trained as a process consultant with an appreciative orientation. He is a graduate of Union Institute and studied at Episcopal Divinity School and Bangor (ME) Seminary, earning a master of divinity degree.
