CALL TO CONVENTION

225th Annual Diocesan Convention

November 13-14, 2015

“A Call to All”

Notice is hereby given that the annual Convention of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina will be held at Holy Cross Faith Memorial Episcopal Church in Pawleys Island, South Carolina on November 13-14, 2015. Our theme will be “A Call to All.”

We are delighted to have the Right Reverend Doctor Robert Gillies, The Bishop of Aberdeen and Orkney, one of the seven historic dioceses of the Scottish Episcopal Church, as the preacher for our Convention Eucharist.

As usual, diocesan convention this year will present opportunities to accomplish two primary goals: to do the necessary work for our diocese at its annual convention and to participate in the annual reunion of the people of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina.

We also look forward to workshops on Friday, November 13. This year, in fitting with our theme, we are offering multiple workshops. Each one focuses on a different way we are called to serve as the church. Participants will be able to attend two workshops, one in the morning session and one in the afternoon session. Topics include Spiritual Gifts, Disaster Planning, and Telling Your Story. There will also be an all day workshop for interested clergy on Preaching the Lectionary Gospels for Year C led by the Rev. Dr. Thomas Long of the Episcopal Preaching Foundation. Please see the attached workshop brochure and registration form for workshop descriptions.

Four Deanery Meetings are being scheduled prior to Convention. These meetings are to include all clergy, delegates and alternates for the Fall 2015 Convention. Attendance at these meetings is important, as they are the venue for:

- Discussion of the 2016 program and budget
- Introduction of nominees for diocesan offices
- Proposed resolutions

Morning Workshops 10:00 am - 12:00 pm

Workshop A

Spiritual Gifts

Spiritual gifts are God given gifts that allow the Holy Spirit to work more fully in your life. The workshop consists of some study and reflection on what the Bible tells us about spiritual gifts; understanding the power of the Holy Spirit in your life; completing a spiritual gifts discernment tool; and reflecting on ministry work and how this relates to your spiritual gifts. Led by the Rev. Jemonde Taylor, Rector of St. Ambrose Episcopal Church in Raleigh, NC.

Workshop B

Digital Media & Christian Formation Models and resources for high- and low-tech churches

Digital media are changing how we learn and relate to one another, and this digital revolution brings with it plenty of good news for all kinds of churches. Get inspired to take learning and engagement to the next level in your Christian formation ministries. From elementary to elderly, there's a digital resource waiting to help people of any age connect more deeply and regularly with God and the faith community. Led by Kyle Oliver, digital missionary in the Center for the Ministry of Teaching at Virginia Theological Seminary.

Workshop C

“Guess Who’s Coming to Dinner?” Preaching the Gospel of Luke in the Coming Year: Part 1

The Rev. Dr. Thomas G. Long, the Bandy Professor of Preaching at Candler School of Theology at Emory in Atlanta and Episcopal Preaching Foundation trainer will be leading interested clergy in preaching the lectionary gospels for year C, which lean heavily toward Luke. This is a two-part workshop that will be meeting over lunch and continuing in the afternoon.

These workshops are offered to clergy and lay people all over the diocese. Everyone is invited to attend!

Episcopalians from every congregation will find rewarding, helpful and inspiring messages to take home to their parishes, missions and worship communities.

This year we are offering three workshops in the morning and afternoon to allow everyone to find the place that best suits their ministry.

Afternoon Workshops 1:00-3:00 pm

Workshop D

Disaster Planning for your Church

The Episcopal Relief and Development Disaster Preparedness Initiative works with dioceses to increase their resilience and ability to recover quickly from disasters. Led by guest disaster preparedness trainer Katie Mears, the workshop will work to assist each church in creating a disaster preparedness and response plan. She will also introduce the Episcopal Asset Map and how our churches can be included on it and benefit from it.

Workshop E

Finding Your Niche, Telling Your Story The art of reaching out

(from planning to execution)

Never before have churches had access to so many affordable communication tools for reaching out. But before you use them, you have to have something to say. Following Julie Lytle's mantra of "message, method, then media," this workshop will walk through the communications planning process before moving on to some hands-on tips and training. Led by Kyle Oliver, digital missionary in the Center for the Ministry of Teaching at Virginia Theological Seminary.

Workshop F

“Guess Who’s Coming to Dinner?” Preaching the Gospel of Luke in the Coming Year: Part 2

This is the second session of the Rev. Dr. Thomas G. Long's workshop for interested clergy on preaching the lectionary gospels for year C, which lean heavily toward Luke. This is a two-part workshop that begins in the morning.

Consultation Time 3:15-4:45 pm

Whether you're a formation minister, communicator, clergy person, or vestry member, there's a lot we can talk about. Drop in for a pick-up conversation with our presenters to follow up on our workshops. They will be available for any further questions you have or to work on specific needs in your congregation.
