Good Morning and Welcome to All Saints As our Rector says: “If you have a faith or are seeking one, you are always welcome in this house of the Lord;” therefore, we open our doors wide to all people. We hope this bulletin assists you in participating in the liturgy. Everything needed is either printed here or referenced. Numeric references point to musical selections found in the blue hymnal in the rack in front of you. Please note that the hymnal lists service music (denoted by “S”) first, and then hymns. The service music is located at the front of the hymnal. This is a service of Holy Communion. All persons seeking God are welcome at the Lord’s Table and are invited to receive the consecrated bread and wine.

Children are valued and nurtured here and we have a commitment to help them learn to worship. They may not always understand what is going on, but they can know that this is a place where they are loved and accepted.

Liturgical Note: Pentecost, which comes from the Greek, meaning ‘fiftieth day,” marks the close of the Easter Season. It celebrates the day that the disciples were empowered by the Holy Spirit. The color red symbolizes the tongues of fire in which the Holy Spirit appeared. Pentecost is one of several occasions on which it is recommended that the rite of Baptism be celebrated. This is because in baptism we remember that we are infused with God’s Spirit and empowered to live a new life in faith. If there are no candidates for Baptism, those gathered still renew their baptismal vows.

This morning is the last meeting of the Children’s Sunday School until the fall. We give thanks for our students and all those who guide them.

Today is also the final Sunday for the Choir to sing until September. We appreciate all those who support our singing with voices or instruments and all who make offerings as cantors and soloists.

All Saints’ Healing Ministry: This parish community believes in the power of healing as a gift from God, and we offer a ministry of healing through prayer and laying on of hands during the Eucharist. You are invited to move to the Hay Chapel as you leave the altar rail.

VOLUNTARY Choral varié sur le Veni Creator, Op. 4 Maurice Duruflé
During this Eastertide, the Voluntary aids us in the celebration of the resurrection.

EASTER ACCLAMATION AND COLLECT FOR PURITY

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name: through Christ our Lord.
People Amen.
THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant  The Lord be with you.
People      And also with you.
Celebrant  Let us pray. Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING Acts 2:1-21

Today’s lesson from the Acts of the Apostles will be presented in dramatic form. On closing, the Narrator will say The Word of the Lord.

People    Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL Psalm 104:25-35, 37

The antiphon is sung by the choir, followed by choir and congregation together. The choir chants the Psalm with the choir and congregation singing the antiphon as indicated.

Al-le-lu-ia! Send forth your spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Antiphon

25 O Lord, how manifold are your works! * in wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.
26 Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, * creatures both small and great.
27 There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, * which you have made for the sport of it.

Antiphon

28 All of them look to you * to give them their food in due season.
29 You give it to them; they gather it; * you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
30 You hide your face, and they are terrified; * you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.
31 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; * and so you renew the face of the earth.

Antiphon

32 May the glory of the Lord endure for ever; * may the Lord rejoice in all his works.
33 He looks at the earth and it trembles; * he touches the mountains and they smoke.
34 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; * I will praise my God while I have my being.
35 May these words of mine please him; * I will rejoice in the Lord.
37 Bless the LORD, O my soul. *
Hallelujah!

Antiphon

THE SECOND READING Romans 8:22-27
We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Verse: Come Holy Spirit fill the [hearts of] your faithful, And kindle in us the [fire of] your love.

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to his disciples, “When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father, he will testify on my behalf. You also are to testify because you have been with me from the beginning. “I did not say these things to you from the beginning, because I was with you. But now I am going to him who sent me; yet none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your hearts. Nevertheless I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. And when he comes, he will prove the world wrong about sin and righteousness and judgment: about sin, because they do not believe in me; about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been condemned. “I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

THE RENEWAL OF BAPTISMAL VOWS
Celebrant Dear People of God: Our Lord Jesus Christ sealed the Paschal mystery of his death and resurrection in his ascension and with the gift of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost. This year, the day of Pentecost falls on the following Sunday, which is the______ _______ Sunday of Pentecost. In this renewal of our vows, let us remember that we were sealed with the印 of the Holy Spirit.
Pentecost. That same Spirit continues to give birth to God’s people through the waters of baptism. I call upon you, therefore, to renew your own baptismal covenant.

The Celebrant continues

Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?
People I do.
Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?
People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.
Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
People I will, with God’s help.
Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
People I will, with God’s help.
Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
People I will, with God’s help.
Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
People I will, with God’s help.
Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
People I will, with God’s help.

The Celebrant concludes the Renewal of Vows as follows

May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

People Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Deacon
Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

All
Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.
Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

All Amen.

THE OFFERTORY

The Celebrant gives an offertory sentence.

ANTHEM AT THE OFFERTORY

Come, Holy Ghost Thomas Attwood

Come, Holy Ghost, our souls inspire, and lighten with celestial fire. Thou the anointing Spirit art, who dost thy sevenfold gifts impart. Thy blessedunction from above is comfort, life, and fire of love. Enable with perpetual light the dullness of our blinded sight. Anoint and cheer our soiled face with the abundance of thy grace. Keep far from foes, give peace at home: where thou art guide, no ill can come. Teach us to know the Father, Son, and thee, of both, to be but One, that through the ages all along, this may be our endless song: Praise to thy eternal merit, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

PRESENTATION HYMN 516 Down Ampney

During the hymn, representatives of the congregation bring the people’s offerings of bread and wine, and money or other gifts to the altar.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.
Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Here a Proper Preface is said. The Celebrant continues

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name.

SANCTUS 518 William Mathias

Holy, holy, holy Lord

Please stand or kneel

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me. And so it is also with the cup of wine, which represents the Blood of the New and everlasting covenant.

So the Celebrant continues:

And the people respond:

All Amen.
and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you. This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."
Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Celebrant We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for all people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever.
AMEN.

All And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.
