Charleston, South Carolina

June 10, 2018
The Third Sunday after Pentecost

Warm Welcome

We welcome you to the Church of the Holy Communion.
Please sign our guest book at either door so that we may be more responsive to your needs.

Church of the Holy Communion confidently proclaims that in the Holy Mass the Bread and Wine become the True Body and Blood of our Risen Savior Jesus Christ. All Christians who have been baptized with water and in the Name of the Blessed Trinity are invited joyfully to receive these Holy Mysteries of His Real Presence.

Those who are not able to receive Holy Communion are encouraged to come forward to the rail for a blessing. Please cross your arms over your chest as a sign to the priest that you wish to receive his Blessing.
You are welcome in this Holy Place!

Holy Quiet Before Mass

The fifteen minutes before the Liturgy begins is consecrated for prayer and meditation in the church.
This is a holy time during which we may prepare our souls to hear the Word of God and receive the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.
You are invited to take advantage of these few moments of silence.
We ask also that you respect this holy time by abstaining from conversation within the church.

Collect of the Day

O God, from whom all good doth come: Grant that by thy inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by thy merciful guiding may perform the same: through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Lesson Genesis 3:8-15

They heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." He said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate." The Lord God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, cursed are you among all animals and among all wild creatures; upon your belly you shall go, and dust you shall eat all the days of your life. I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will strike your head, and you will strike his heel."

Gradual (sung by the choir) Psalms 130 chant: Purcell
arr. Florence T. Ettlind

(Antiphon for 8:00 AM Mass Only)

Antiphon: With the Lord there is mercy; with him there is plenteous redemption.

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord; *
Lord, hear my voice.

O let thine ears consider well, *
the voice of my complaint.

[Antiphon]

If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss, *
O Lord, who may abide it?
For there is mercy with thee; *
therefore shalt thou be feared. [Antiphon]

I look for the Lord; my soul doth wait for him; *
in his word is my trust.
My soul fleeth unto the Lord before the morning watch; *
I say, before the morning watch. [Antiphon]

O trust in the Lord; for with the Lord there is mercy, *
and with him is plenteous redemption.
And he shall redeem us *
from all his sins. [Antiphon]

The Epistle 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

Just as we have the same spirit of faith that is in accordance with scripture—"I believed, and so I spoke"—we also believe, and so we speak, because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will bring us with you into his presence. Yes, everything is for your sake, so that grace, as it extends to more and more people, may increase thanksgiving, to the glory of God.

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day. For this slight momentary affliction is preparing us for an eternal weight of glory beyond all measure, because we look not at what can be seen but at what cannot be seen; for what can be seen is temporary, but what cannot be seen is eternal.

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Alleluia

Alleluia. Alleluia. Thou, O God, art set in the throne that judgest right: be thou the refuge of the oppressed in due time of trouble. Alleluia.

Hymn 652 Rest
The Gospel Mark 3:20-35

The crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind." And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons." And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered.

"Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"—for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit."

Then his mother and his brothers came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."
