The Collect of the Day

Keep, O Lord, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from Ezekiel 17:22-24

Thus says the Lord God: I myself will take a sprig from the lofty top of a cedar; I will set it out. I will break off a tender one from the topmost of its young twigs; I myself will plant it on a high and lofty mountain. On the mountain height of Israel I will plant it, in order that it may produce boughs and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Under it every kind of bird will live; in the shade of its branches will nest winged creatures of every kind. All the trees of the field shall know that I am the Lord. I bring low the high tree, I make high the low tree; I dry up the green tree and make the dry tree flourish. I the Lord have spoken; I will accomplish it.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 92:1-4,11-14

Bonum est confiteri

The choir and congregation chant the psalm together, changing pitch on the underlined word or syllable.

Robert Knox Kennedy
(b. 1945)

1 It is a good thing to give thanks to the LORD,
and to sing praises to your Name, O Most High;

2 To tell of your loving-kindness early in the morning
and of your faithfulness in the night season;

3 On the psaltery, and on the lyre,
and to the melody of the harp.

4 For you have made me glad by your acts, O LORD;
and I shout for joy because of the works of your hands.

11 The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree,
and shall spread abroad like a cedar of Lebanon.

12 Those who are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God;

13 They shall still bear fruit in old age;
they shall be green and succulent;

14 That they may show how upright the LORD is,
my Rock, in whom there is no fault.

The Epistle: 2 Corinthians 5:6-10, 14-17

We are always confident; even though we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord-- for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yes, we do have confidence, and we would rather be away from the body and at home with the Lord. So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For all of us must appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense for what has been done in the body, whether good or evil. For the love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And he died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

People: Thanks be to God.

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Gospel: Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said, “The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come.” He also said, “With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade.” With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Reverend Jason Roberson

At the conclusion of the sermon, the congregation sits silently

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

As we renew our own Baptismal Covenant we join with Jack William Kunz, son of Andy & Rachel Kunz and grandson of Ed & Moe Kunz, who was committed to God in Baptism at the 8:00 service this morning.

Celebrant: Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?

People: I do.

Celebrant: Do you believe in God the Father?

People: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People: I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant: Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People: I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Celebrant: Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People: I will, with God's help.

Celebrant: Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People: I will, with God's help.

The Celebrant concludes the Renewal of Vows as follows

May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

The Commissioning:

Rector: Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus, we are all baptized by the one Spirit into one Body, and given gifts for a variety of ministries for the common good. Our purpose is to commission these persons in the Name of God and to the special ministry of mission to which they are called.

Team Leader: I present to you these persons to be ambassadors for Christ on behalf Holy Cross Faith Memorial. They have prepared themselves for this mission trip to the Dominican Republic to form friendships and to work with the people and congregation of La Encarnación Episcopal School and Parish in the city of La Romana.

Rector: You have been called on behalf of your congregation to go out as witnesses to the Risen Christ, as His ambassadors, to uphold and seek to serve Christ in all persons and places. Through Christ and in Christ, you will share in a ministry of reconciliation and encouragement to build up the Kingdom of God. Will you faithfully carry out this ministry to the honor of God and the benefit of this community and all whom you serve?

Candidates: I will.

Rector: Let us pray.

Gracious God, your Son before he ascended to glory declared that your people would receive power from the Holy Spirit to bear witness to him to the ends of the earth: Be present with all who go forth in his Name, protect them all the day long and bring them safely home. Let your love shine through their witness, so that all who come to them may see your glory in all that is given, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, look with favor upon these persons who have now reaffirmed their commitment to follow Christ and to serve in his name. Give them courage, patience, and vision; and strengthen us all in our Christian vocation of witness to the world, and of service to others; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

In the Name of God and of this congregation, I commission you as ambassadors and missionaries of this parish and diocese. Let your light so shine before others that they may see your good works and give glory to God. I commend you to this work, and pledge you our prayers, encouragement, and support. The almighty and merciful Lord, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, bless you and keep you. Amen.

The Holy Communion

The Offertory

Beloved, wherever you are, whatever you do, in all things seek to please the Lord, who loves you, and from whom all your blessings flow.

Offertory Anthem

Come, sing unto the Lord

J. M. Martin

Come, sing unto the Lord, sing a song of joy, a grateful hymn of praise, and let His glory fill the earth, let every voice be raised. O sing unto the Lord, let the earth respond, His awesome deeds proclaim. Declare His works to everyone and praise His holy name. All oceans, hills, and trees reply: "Let His praise be lifted high". Let the valleys now be raised and every mountain shout His awesome praise. Come, sing unto the Lord, let the song go forth, all nations join as one. Ascribe to God, the Lord of hosts, the wonders He has done. Come, sing unto the Lord a song of joy, His love for endless days, and celebrate the one true God who is worthy of our praise. Sing unto the Lord!

Presentation Hymn

Praise God from whom all blessings flow; Praise Him all creatures here below Praise Him above, ye heavenly host: Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Our fathers' God, to thee, author of liberty, to thee we sing.
Long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might, great God, our King.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer A

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you call us to walk by faith and not by sight; yet through your Son Jesus Christ, and by your grace, you have shown us the faith that we otherwise could not know; and by his example, we boldly proclaim the kingdom of God and await, with confidence and hope, the day of our salvation.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus

S 125

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san-na in the high-est.

The people stand or kneel. The celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom. All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The first Social Night Out was held in June 2008 at the home of Annette and Doug Billings. They had been in the hospitality business over the years, and suggested to the rector that social settings were a great way to get people to interact and really get to know one another. They set the standard that the host would provide the venue, serving items and the beverages and the attendees would bring a favorite hors d' oeuvre to share. The inaugural party in 2008 had 65 persons attending. Initially, the event was to be held every quarter, but people liked it so much it was changed to every two months. The Social Night Out has become the most successful hospitality event in the history of Holy Cross Faith Memorial. The Billings home, where it all started ten years ago, will be the site for the ten-year anniversary celebration of Social Night Out. Annette and Doug, with assisting hosts, Cindy and Gid Montjoy, want to invite all to attend the celebration on Saturday, June 30, beginning at 6 p.m. A sign up sheet and directions to the Billings home is in the narthex. Come and join the event that has made many friendships possible in our parish over the past ten years.

The Men's Bible Study continues to read James Dawsey, Peter's Last Sermon. We meet in back of sanctuary Thursdays at 7:31 AM.

Brand new chapel kneelers are coming! New kneelers for the chapel are currently being designed and made by our HCFM needlepointers. The design will match our beautiful kneelers in the church, and they will capture the history of the chapel and the heritage of our parish. If you would like to help cover the cost of the kneelers by making a donation in memory or in honor of a friend or family member, please contact Fr. Jason at jroberson@holycrossfm.org.

Coffee with Clergy, Youth Group and Women's Bible Study will be on hiatus for the summer. All will reconvene after Labor Day.

Invite*Welcome*Connect is seeking greeters at both Sunday services to welcome newcomers as they enter the narthex and to offer an opportunity to sign the register and receive a name tag. If you are willing to serve as a greeter, please send your name and contact information to Betsy Marlow at marlovia@sccoast.net or 843-902-7385.
