THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN SOUTH CAROLINA

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

The Episcopal Church in South Carolina accedes to and adopts the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America and acknowledges this authority accordingly.

ARTICLE II

Of Diocesan Convention Meetings

Section 1. A Diocesan Convention shall be held annually, at such time and place as shall have been determined upon by the preceding Convention; or, on failure of the Convention so to determine, at such time and place as the Ecclesiastical Authority shall appoint

Section 2. The Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese shall have power to call a special meeting of the Convention by giving at least thirty (30) days' notice to every clergyman entitled to a seat in the Convention, and to every Parish and Mission in the Diocese in Union with the Convention, and such meeting shall be held when and where the Authority so calling it shall determine and at such meeting no other business shall be transacted than that specified in the notice so calling said meeting: PROVIDED, That whenever a special meeting of Convention is called for the purpose, in whole or in part, of electing a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop, Lay Deputies from the several Parishes and organized Missions in union with Convention shall be elected after the call has been issued for such special meeting.

Section 3. If, in the judgment of the Ecclesiastical Authority, there exists sufficient cause to require a change of time or place for the meeting of a Convention either annual or special, the said Authority may designate another time or place of holding such meeting, to be held within 30 days after the time originally designated and after notice to every clergyman and Parish and Mission in the Diocese.

ARTICLE III

Of Diocesan Convention Members

Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of clergymen and laypersons, as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. The following shall be entitled to all of the privileges as members of the Convention: The Bishop of this Diocese; the Retired Bishops of the Diocese; the Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese, when there is one; Suffragan Bishops of this Diocese, if there be any; the Archdeacon of the Diocese, if Non-Parochial; every clergyman who is actually and canonically resident within the Diocese and discharging the duties of his station as Rector, Minister, or Assistant Minister of an organized Parish or organized Mission; and every clergyman, who, after a continued membership of at least twenty years in the Convention is incapacitated by the infirmities of health or age from further active duties of the ministry, and is canonically and actually resident in the Diocese. The following shall also be entitled to all the privileges as members of the Convention: every clergyman canonically resident in the Diocese who is employed either by the Diocese or actively engaged in the work of the Church in the Diocese or at its affiliated institutions, PROVIDED, that no vote shall be received from any clergyman who has failed to deliver the Parochial Report required by Section 4 of Canon XXV by February first (1) preceding the Convention, unless he be accorded such privilege by a majority vote of the Convention. Vocational deacons otherwise qualified for membership in the Convention shall be entitled to seat and voice but not vote.

Section 3. Each Parish and each Mission in union with the Convention shall be entitled to lay representation in the Convention: a Parish by not more than four laypersons and a Mission by not more than two laypersons. The election of said Lay Deputies shall take place in each Parish and each Mission, which has been admitted to union with the Convention, by ballot, from among the confirmed communicants, at a meeting of the members thereof, on the Second Monday in January of each year, or some other day thereafter to be appointed, upon not less than one week's notice given by the Rector, or the Vestry, if there be no Rector. An equal number of Lay Deputies may be elected to serve as alternates or substitutes for such Lay Deputies, elected as above, who may not, from any cause, attend the Convention when it assembles, or who may not remain in such attendance; PROVIDED, that no votes shall be received from any Parish or Mission which has failed to comply with the requirements of the Canon as to Parochial Reports by February first (1) preceding the Convention, unless they be accorded such privilege by a majority vote of the Convention.

Section 4. The terms of office of Deputies so elected shall continue until their successors are elected, and shall before they are permitted to take their seats, produce written testimonials of their election.

Section 5. No deputy shall represent more than one Parish or Mission or have more than one vote; and, if a Lay Deputy, he shall not represent any Parish or Mission unless he is a communicant of such Parish or Mission and is not enrolled as a communicant of any other Parish or Mission.

Section 6. When the Convention shall have been called to order, the list of the Clergy prepared by the Bishop or Ecclesiastical Authority, shall be laid before the Convention and the names of the Clerical members shall be called therefrom. Immediately thereafter the Secretary shall proceed to call the names of the Lay Deputies; after which, if a quorum be found present, the President shall declare the Convention duly organized. PROVIDED, however, that if the Clerical and Lay Deputies have been registered on the opening day of the Convention and such registration is then in the hands of the Secretary, said roll calls may be dispensed with. PROVIDED, FURTHER, that if a question be made, the right of any clergyman or Lay Deputy shall be determined according to the provisions of the Constitution itself.

ARTICLE IV Of a Quorum

A majority of the Clerical Order and Lay Representatives from a majority of the churches shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business generally, but any number of either Order that shall assemble may adjourn from day to day until a quorum is formed.

ARTICLE V Of the President

The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex officio President of the Convention, and in his absence the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one. But in case neither of them be present, the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, then the President of the Standing Committee shall be the President of the Convention; and if they be not present, a presiding officer shall be elected from among the attending presbyters.

ARTICLE VI Of the Other Officers of the Diocese

Section 1. The other officers of the Diocese shall be a Chancellor, an Assistant Chancellor, an Executive Secretary of the Diocese, a Treasurer, and a Historiographer, all of whom shall be confirmed communicants of the Church, and a member of a Parish or Mission in union with the Convention.

Section 2. The Chancellor and the Assistant Chancellor shall be nominated by the Bishop and shall be elected by a majority vote of the Convention. Before the Assistant Chancellor is nominated by the Bishop, the nomination must be approved by the Chancellor. The term of office of the Assistant Chancellor shall run concurrently with the term of the office of the Chancellor. They shall serve for three years, and until their successors are elected. Their duties shall be to act as legal advisors of the Ecclesiastical Authority and other Diocesan offices and organizations, in matters affecting the interest of the Church. They shall be EX

OFFICIO members of the Convention without the right to vote, unless a deputy from a Parish or Mission in union with the Convention.

Section 3. The Treasurer shall be elected at each Annual Convention by ballot (unless the ballot be unanimously dispensed with), and shall continue in office until his successor is elected. His duties shall be as prescribed by the Constitution, Canons, Resolutions, and Rules of Order of both the Convention of this Diocese and of the General Convention. He shall be EX- OFFICIO a member of the Convention without the right to vote, unless he be a delegate from a Parish or Mission in union with the Convention.

Section 4. The Executive Secretary shall be appointed by the Bishop, and shall continue in office at the pleasure of the Bishop. In case there be no Bishop, or Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop canonically authorized to act, then the Standing Committee shall appoint the Executive Secretary to serve at its pleasure or until there be a Bishop, or Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop canonically authorized to act. He shall act as Secretary of the Convention, and his duties shall be prescribed by the Constitution, Canons, Resolutions, and Rules of Order of both the Convention of this Diocese and of the General Convention for the Secretary of the Diocese.

Section 5. The Historiographer shall be appointed by the Bishop, to serve for three years, and until a successor is appointed. The duties of the Historiographer shall be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE VII

Of Deliberating and Voting in Convention

Section 1. On all questions coming before the Convention, unless otherwise provided by the Constitution, the members shall deliberate and vote as one body, unless a separate vote by Orders be demanded as below provided. Immediately prior to the putting of the question to be voted upon, the President shall inquire whether there be objection to voting as one body; whereupon, upon demand by any two clergymen or by any two Deputies from separate churches, a separate vote of each Order shall be had; in such case the clergy shall vote individually and the Lay Deputies by churches (a majority from each Parish having one vote and each mission having one-half vote). A majority vote of both Orders shall, in each case, be necessary to a decision.

Section 2. In the election of a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor or Suffragan Bishop, the vote shall be by ballot, and by Orders, a concurrent majority of the two Orders being necessary to a choice; PROVIDED, that two-thirds of all the clergy entitled to vote and two-thirds of all the churches entitled to representation, be present; otherwise, two-thirds of the vote of each Order present shall be necessary to determine a choice.

ARTICLE VIII

Of Admitting Parishes and Missions Into the Convention

Section 1.

A. PARISH

Parishes which have been organized as provided by Canon for not less than one year may apply for and be admitted into union with the Convention by vote of the Convention, provided that the requirements hereinafter set forth have been met:

- (1) Application for admission is made in writing (and in duplicate) by the Wardens and Vestry to the Secretary of the Convention, and such application is received by the Secretary at least 30 days prior to the convening of the Convention at its annual meeting.
- (2) Said application may state such facts as the applicant deems pertinent, but it must state:
 - a. the facts of applicant's organization in accordance with the Canons of the Diocese and its continued existence thereunder for at least one year,
 - b. the number of its adult members and the number of its communicants,

- c. the names of its Wardens, Vestrymen, Secretary, Treasurer and proposed Lay Deputies,
 - d. evidence that it is self-supporting and the prospects of remaining so, which evidence of self-support shall include its ability to pay the full salary of its minister at or greater than the minimum salary scale approved by the Department of Mission with the approval of the Bishop, and the amount contributed to the Diocese for the preceding year,
 - e. its willingness to conform to the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention and the Constitution and Canons of the Convention of this Diocese, which are, or thereafter may be, enacted by the authority of the same.
- (3) Said application must be accompanied by two certified copies of its corporation charter and two certified copies of its by-laws.
- (4) Said application shall also be accompanied by a certificate from the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese stating that said Authority approves the admission of applicant into union with the Convention and that applicant has been for at least one year duly organized as a Parish under the Canons of the Diocese.
- (5) In case the applicant be within the limits of one or more existing Parishes or Missions, the application shall also state the reason for its organization, the distance of their place of worship from the other, or from each of the others, together with whatever additional facts may throw light upon the situation.

B. MISSIONS

Missions which have been organized as provided by canon for not less than one year may apply for and be admitted into union with the Convention, by vote of the Convention, provided that the requirements hereinafter set forth have been met:

- (1) Application for admission is made in writing (and in duplicate) by a majority of the members of the Mission seeking admission, to the Secretary of the Convention and such application is received by the Secretary at least 30 days prior to the convening of the Convention at its annual meeting.
- (2) Said application may state such facts as the applicant deems pertinent, but it must state:
- a. the facts of applicant's organization in accordance with the Canons of the Diocese and its continued existence thereunder for at least one year,
 - b. that its organization has not been dissolved by the Ecclesiastical Authority,
 - c. the number of its adult members and the number of its communicants,
 - d. the names of its Wardens, Mission Council members, Secretary, Treasurer and proposed Lay Deputies,
 - e. the extent of its ability to support its work, its willingness to conform to the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention and the Constitution and Canons of the Convention of this Diocese, which are then, or thereafter may be, enacted by the authority of the same.
- (3) Said application must be accompanied by two certified copies of its corporate charter, and, if it has any by-laws then two certified copies thereof.
- (4) Said application shall be accompanied by a certificate from the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese stating that said Authority approves the admission of applicant into union with the Convention and that applicant has been for at least one year duly organized under the Canons of the Diocese, and its organization has not been dissolved.

- (5) In case the applicant be within the limits of one or more existing Parishes or Missions, the application shall also state the reason for its organization, the distance of its place of worship from the other, or from each of the others, together with whatever additional facts may throw light upon the situation.

Section 2. At the annual Convention next succeeding the receipt of application for admission to union with the Convention, the Secretary shall communicate the same to the Convention, the Secretary shall communicate the same to the Convention on the first day of its session; and after reference to both the Committee on Admission of New Parishes and the Committee on Constitution and Canons, the application shall be acted upon by the Convention.

Section 3. A Parish or Mission shall be accorded full privileges of membership in the Convention when it is admitted into union with the Convention, including the right of a voice and vote in the proceedings.

ARTICLE IX Of the Standing Committee

Section 1. There shall be a Standing Committee consisting of six Presbyters of the Diocese and six laypersons who are confirmed communicants in good standing of the Church in the Diocese. The Chancellor may be an elected member of the Standing Committee. If the Chancellor is not an elected member of the Standing Committee he shall be an ex officio member of the Standing Committee with voice and no vote. The members of the Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot as follows: Upon the effective date of this article, or as soon thereafter as practicable at the Convention of the Diocese, two Presbyters and two laypersons shall be elected for a term of three (3) years; two Presbyters and two laypersons for a term of two (2) years; and two Presbyters and two laypersons for a term of one (1) year; thereafter, at each succeeding annual Convention two Presbyters and two laypersons shall be elected for a term of three (3) years. No Presbyter or layperson whose term has expired shall be eligible for re-election until the passage of one Convention year from the date of said expiration. If there be no Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop, canonically authorized to act, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese. In all decisions as the Ecclesiastical Authority, the Standing Committee shall vote by Orders; and a majority vote of the members present from each Order shall be necessary for a decision.

Section 2. At their first meeting after the election they shall choose one of the Presbyters of their body to be their President and another member of their body to be their Secretary, whose duty it shall be to keep regular minutes of all the proceedings and business of the committee; to preserve them carefully recorded in a book prepared for that purpose alone; to preserve the originals of all letters and papers addressed to the Standing Committee; to attest their public acts; to perform such other duties as they may require and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successors all books and papers relative to the concerns of the Standing Committee which may have been entrusted to him.

Section 3. They shall present to each Annual Convention an abstract of the minutes of their proceedings since the former Convention.

Section 4. Vacancies in this committee, caused by death, resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the suffrage of the remaining members, a majority vote of each Order being necessary to a choice.

Section 5. The Standing Committee may adopt standing resolutions, which when adopted shall continue in force until repealed by majority vote of the total membership of the Standing Committee adopting same or by a majority vote of the total membership of a subsequent Standing Committee. The present standing resolutions of the Standing Committee are printed in the Journal by request.

ARTICLE X Of Deputies to the General Convention

Section 1. At an Annual Convention during the triennium between General Conventions, but preceding each General Convention, four Presbyters and four laypersons, having qualifications established by the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church, shall be chosen by ballot to represent the Diocese at the next succeeding General Convention. Four other Presbyters and four other laypersons, having the same qualifications, shall be chosen by ballot, as alternates for those selected. Such representatives and alternates shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified.

Section 2. In case any Deputy of those first chosen shall decline such election, or be unable to attend, he shall forthwith inform the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, and the said Ecclesiastical Authority shall thereupon summon to the General Convention one of the substitutes, in the order in which their names are on the Journal, which order shall be the order of their election; or when two or more are elected at one balloting, shall be determined by the aggregate vote received; PROVIDED, That in case all of the substitutes so elected shall decline to serve, or be unable to attend, the Ecclesiastical Authority may appoint a substitute, or substitutes, of like qualifications in his or their stead.

ARTICLE XI Of the Trial of a Clergyman

A clergyman shall be subject to a trial for offences enumerated in the Canons of the General Convention or in the Canons of this Convention, and if found guilty shall be sentenced in accordance therewith. The trial shall be conducted according to the Canons of this Convention.

ARTICLE XII Of Altering the Constitution

No alteration or amendment of, or addition to this Constitution shall be made unless the same be proposed in writing and in duplicate on the first day of an Annual Convention and after reference to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, is adopted by a majority vote of the Convention at which it is proposed, and further adopted by a two-thirds vote of both Orders present at the next Annual Convention.

STANDING RESOLUTIONS

1. RESOLVED, That when any clergyman of the Diocese shall depart this life, his record shall be inscribed on a memorial page of the Journal.
(Passed 1872).

2. RESOLVED, That In a vote by Orders, the Secretary shall call the names of the clerical deputies and then call the roll of the Parishes and Missions in union with the Convention, and, if desired by any Deputy record the clergymen and laymen voting affirmatively and negatively. (Passed 1877, revised 1914, and 1961).

3. RESOLVED, That the Secretary is instructed to print separately in the Journal so much of the reports of each Parish and Mission as shows the name of the officers and also remarks, if any. It will be sufficient to print the statistics of the churches together in tables. (Passed 1918).

4. RESOLVED, That one copy of the Journal of the Convention of the Diocese be mailed to each and every Deputy separately by the Secretary as soon as such Journal may be printed and ready for distribution. (Passed 1913).

5. RESOLVED, One of the three Trustees of the University of the South shall be elected at each Convention of the Diocese to fill the expiring three-year term, whether lay or clergy. Should an earlier vacancy have occurred election to fill the un-expired term shall be held. No Trustee of the University of the South shall succeed himself more than once for a three-year term. (Passed 1958).

6. RESOLVED, That notices of the Convention sent out by the Secretary shall include a request that proposed Amendments to the Constitution and Canons be sent at least thirty (30) days before the Convention to the Secretary of the Convention for reference to the Committee on Constitution and Canons. (Passed 1961. Amended 1970 and 1971).

7. RESOLVED, (A) That whenever there is an election of a Trustee of the University of the South by this Convention, the one receiving the next highest number of votes be designated as the Alternate Trustee and that the Bishop be authorized to appoint him as such; (B) That in case the Alternate Trustee be unable to attend a meeting of the Board of Trustees, the Bishop is hereby authorized to appoint another Alternate Trustee of the same order (Passed 1965).

8. RESOLVED, That the Diocesan Council through the Secretary of Convention shall send to every congregation at least twenty (20) days prior to Convention information concerning major matters to be brought before the Convention by the Council, including any action by Council on these matters. Each Parish or Mission is urged to make such information known to the congregation.

9. RESOLVED, That the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese shall appoint, at least sixty (60) days before the convening of each Annual Convention, a nominating committee composed of one Presbyter and one layperson from each Deanery, designating a convener; and such committee shall nominate two persons for each vacancy to be filled at the next Annual Convention of the Diocese, excepting Deputies to General Convention, in which case the Nominating Committee shall nominate all qualified persons whose names have been duly and properly submitted; PROVIDED, that before any person is nominated by such committee, it shall secure the consent of such person to serve if elected. (Passed 1970, Amended 1972 and 1989).

10. RESOLVED, That all Parishes, Missions, and organizations in the Diocese that are not incorporated are urgently requested to incorporate under the laws of South Carolina; and if a Parish or Mission, then it is requested to include the provision in its charter that the corporation is formed for the purpose of operating a Parish or Mission, organized pursuant and subject to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of South Carolina as now in force or as thereafter may be amended, and the further provision that upon being dissolved pursuant to the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of South Carolina, automatically the offices of the Vestry, Wardens, and other officers of the corporation shall become vacant, and the Standing Committee of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of South Carolina shall become the managing body of the corporation, with full power and authority, without restriction, to liquidate the property of the corporation, to sell or mortgage its property or any part thereof, to convey any or all of its property to the Trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Church in South Carolina, and upon complete liquidation to surrender the charter of the corporation; and that each Parish and Mission in the Diocese that is now incorporated is urgently requested to amend its charter to include the aforesaid provision in its charter. (Passed 1970).

11. RESOLVED, That all Parishes, Missions, and organizations in the Diocese which hold any property with reverter clauses to the grantor, grantors, or other persons in the title are urgently requested to make every effort to remove, or have removed therefrom, all possibility of a reverter; and that all Parishes, Missions, and organizations in the Diocese are further urged to avoid, if possible, the taking of any title to property with reverter clauses therein. (Passed 1970).

12. RESOLVED, That the Convention elect to the Board of Trustees of The Porter-Gaud Academy one clergyman and one layperson each to serve for a term of four (4) years and thereafter upon the expiration of said terms or in the event a vacancy occurs during a term of office of one of the individuals so elected, the Convention will elect a person to fill the un-expired term of such person provided, however, that in the event it becomes necessary to fill the un-expired term of a clergyman, the successor to him shall be a clergyman, and if said vacancy occurs during the term of the layperson so elected, a layperson shall be elected to fill the un-expired portion of said term. And be it further

RESOLVED, That the Diocese of South Carolina, in recognition of the historic close affiliation between it and The Porter-Gaud Academy continue in such relationship and continue to develop mutually beneficial programs with a view toward serving the mutual purposes of both institutions.

13. RESOLVED, That the Thanksgiving Day Offering received by the Churches in the Diocese of South Carolina be designated for the work of the Episcopal Church Home for Children in York.

14. RESOLVED, That this Diocese renew its endorsement of the tithe of 10 percent of personal income as the minimum standard of Christian giving; that the Convention challenge the people of each Parish and Mission to adopt a plan of proportionate giving as a way to grow toward the goal of the tithe; that the Convention challenge each Parish and Mission to give serious consideration to proportionate giving from their gross receipts and to the goal of 50 percent of their income being spent in ministry and mission beyond the Parish; that the Convention challenge each individual and church of this Diocese to adopt a personal plan for moving toward these goals; and that the Journal of this Convention and the Jubilate Deo publish annually the stewardship statistics of all Parishes and Missions in such a way that our individual and corporate growth in giving can be shared and celebrated.

15. RESOLVED, That the Mother's Day offering received by the churches in the Diocese of South Carolina be designated for work with the aging; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the parishes and missions in the Diocese of South Carolina are urged to set aside a budget item for the ministry to the aging; and be it further

RESOLVED, That this Convention commends to all the valuable resources offered by the Episcopal Society for Ministry to the Aging and requests the Diocese to create a Commission of Ministry to the Aging under the Division of Human Needs to emphasize the Diocese's ongoing concern with a total ministry to the aging and to coordinate efforts with the Episcopal Ministry to the Aging, Inc.

16. RESOLVED, That the Congregation of Prince George Parish, Winyah in Georgetown urges the 198th meeting of the Convention of the Diocese of South Carolina to adopt as a Standing Resolution the resolution of the 197th Convention, to wit:

"The time-honored and biblically-rooted standard of chastity for Christian people remains unchanged. This means that sexual relations are to be confined to one's partner in marriage.

Since Clergy are expected to provide, in their lives and in their teaching, a wholesome example for others, Bishops and other Diocesan officials should not knowingly admit to, nor retain in, Holy Orders, any person who cannot or will not do so.

And, furthermore, while we are called by Our Lord to offer love, forgiveness and pastoral care to all persons, neither the Clergy nor the Laity of this Church should encourage any attempt to legitimize any sexual behavior other than that which is appropriate between a man and a woman united in Holy Matrimony."

18. RESOLVED, That this Convention commend the clergy and laity of the Diocese of South Carolina to support and actively respond to the admonition found in the rubric on page 445 of The Book of Common Prayer, which reads as follows:

The Minister of the Congregation is directed to instruct the people, from time to time, about the duty of Christian parents to make prudent provision for the well-being of their families, and of all persons to make wills, while they are in health, arranging for the disposal of their temporal goods, not neglecting, if they are able, to leave bequests for religious and charitable uses.

BE IT FURTHER, RESOLVED, That this Convention challenge each Minister in charge of a congregation to abide by the rubric of The Book Of Common Prayer, and annually to instruct the people under his or her charge, regarding the maintaining of valid wills for the State of South Carolina and the making of bequests in their wills for the benefit of the Church, including parishes and mission congregations, the Diocese, and Episcopal institutions.

19. RESOLVED, That the Diocese of South Carolina hereby implements Resolution D-165-a of the General Convention of 1991 concerning lay employees' retirement benefits as follows:

1. All Parishes, Missions, and other ecclesiastical organizations, or bodies of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of South Carolina which under the regulations of the Church Pension Fund have elected or shall elect to come into the pension system, shall provide all lay employees who work a minimum of 1,000 hours annually retirement benefits through participation in the Episcopal Church Lay Employees Retirement Plan (ECLERP) or in an equivalent plan, the provisions of which are at least equal to those of ECLERP. Such participation shall commence no later than January 1, 1993. At its commencement, if the plan is a defined benefit plan, the employer contribution shall be not less than 9 percent of the employees' salary; if the plan is a defined contribution plan, the employer shall contribute not less than 5 percent and agree to "match" employee contributions of up to another 4 percent.

2. The employer may impose a minimum age of 21 years and minimum employment period not to exceed one year of continuous employment before an employee would be eligible to participate.

3. The Trustees of the Church Pension Fund shall have authority to increase or decrease the contribution percentages required for the lay pension plan.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN SOUTH CAROLINA

CANONS

Title I

Of the Organized Bodies and Officers of the Church

CANON I Of the Clergy

Section 1. Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare or cause to be prepared a list of the clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Parishes or cures, or of their stations as missionaries, or of the institutions of learning, constituted by civil or Ecclesiastical Authority, in which they are engaged, or in regard to those not engaged in Parishes, Missions or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only; designating those who are entitled to all the privileges of the Convention, and those who are entitled to seats but no votes, and those who are entitled to neither seats nor votes.

Section 2. No clergyman, while suspended from the ministry, shall have a place on the list.

CANON II Of the Organization of Missions

Section 1. Whenever not less than ten persons residing in any neighborhood not included within the limits of a Mission or Parish already organized desire to be organized as a Mission, they shall make application to the Bishop in writing, expressing their desire, and promising conformity to the Constitution and Canons, doctrine, discipline and worship of the Episcopal Church in the United States and in this Diocese, and to the rules regulating such Missions. They may propose a name for the Mission, and shall state the minimum amount they are able to contribute to the support of the proposed Mission.

Section 2. If the Bishop thinks such organization expedient, he shall require that the applicants form a corporation, the charter of which has been approved by the Chancellor or Assistant Chancellor of the Diocese, and contains the provisions required for the organization of a Parish under Canon III. Upon corporation the Bishop, or a Presbyter under his direction, shall appoint a Warden, who shall always be a confirmed Communicant, and a Secretary and Treasurer, from among the members of the Mission, and these officers shall be appointed annually thereafter, on the second Monday in January, or thereafter, and shall continue in office until their successors are appointed. The Bishop may appoint a Minister-in-Charge of the Mission, withdraw the Minister so appointed at any time, and may appoint another.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Warden to procure a suitable place for public worship, and provide things necessary for the decent and orderly performances of Church services.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to collect or receive all contributions, and remit or disburse them, under the direction of the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Section 5. Missions so organized shall report to the Bishop, through the Minister-in-Charge, or if there be none, through the Warden, in like form as Parishes.

CANON III
Of the Organization of Parishes

Section 1. Whenever any organized Mission shall desire to become an organized Parish, it shall make application to the Bishop in writing, which application may state such facts as applicant deems pertinent; but it must show (a) the facts of applicant's organization in accordance with the Canons of the Diocese and its continued existence thereunder for at least one year, (b) that its organization has not been dissolved by the Ecclesiastical Authority, (c) the number of adult members and the number of communicants, (d) its willingness to conform to the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention and the Constitution and Canons of the Convention of this Diocese, which are then, or thereafter may be, enacted by the authority of the same, and (e) evidence that it is self-supporting and the prospects of remaining so, which evidence of self-support shall include its ability to pay the full salary of its minister at or greater than the minimum salary scale approved by the Department of Missions with the approval of the Bishop. The application must be accompanied by a certified copy of its corporate charter, with the approval of such charter by the Chancellor or the Assistant Chancellor. Said charter must contain the provision that the corporation is formed for the purpose of operating a Parish or Mission, organized pursuant and subject to the Canons of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina as now in force or as thereafter may be amended, and the further provision that upon being dissolved pursuant to the Canons of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina, automatically the offices of the Vestry, Wardens, and other officers of the corporation shall become vacant, and the Standing Committee of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina shall become the managing body of the corporation, with full power and authority, without restriction, to liquidate the property of the corporation, to sell or mortgage its property or any part thereof, to convey any or all of its property to the Trustees of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina, and upon complete liquidation to surrender the charter of the corporation.

Section 2. Whenever such organization is proposed within the bounds of any existing Parish or Parishes, they shall give due notice to the Minister or Ministers thereof; or, if the Parish or Parishes be without a Minister or Ministers, then to the Vestry or Vestries of the same. In forwarding to the Ecclesiastical Authority its application for permission to organize as a new Parish, it shall enclose the written approval or disapproval of the Minister or Ministers, the Vestry or Vestries aforesaid; and, if he or they fail to give either, a certificate of the fact.

Section 3. If the Bishop is satisfied that the Mission, if organized as a Parish, will be self-supporting and that all of the requirements of this Canon have been met, he shall organize the Mission as a Parish.

CANON IV
Of Parishes and Missions in Union With Convention

Section 1. It shall be the duty of every Parish or Mission in union with the Convention to send Deputies -- one at least to every Convention.

Section 2. At the annual meeting of the parish, any member may nominate as deputies to the next annual Convention of the Diocese the Senior Warden or the Junior Warden, separately, by title with the words appended to the nomination, "or his/her successor". That title shall appear on the ballot as a nominee and the nomination shall be treated as the nomination of a communicant as provided for in Article III, Section 3 of the Constitution of the Diocese. If nominated, he/she or they shall be voted on and elected by the members of the meeting as though they were named communicants. In complying with Section 3 of this Canon, however, the name and not the title of any person so elected shall be reported as a deputy to the Diocesan Convention. In no case shall either the Senior or Junior Warden of the parish be designated as a deputy unless he or she has been nominated and elected at the annual meeting of the parish in the manner prescribed herein.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of every Vestry to forward to the Secretary of the Convention following the Annual Parish Meeting, but no later than thirty (30) days prior to the next annual Convention, a certificate, signed by the Rector, the Secretary of the Vestry, or one of the Wardens, in the following form:

The Episcopal Church in South Carolina.

Parish or Mission of _____

This is to Certify, That at a meeting of the Congregation of the Parish or Mission of _____ held on the _____ day of _____, A.D. _____, the following communicants of the church were elected to represent the same in the _____ Convention of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina, to be held on the _____ day of _____, A.D., _____. The following alternates were elected:

(Signed)-----
*Rector, Secretary, Warden

*Delete title not applicable.

CANON V
Of Dormant Parishes and Missions

Section 1. Whenever it shall occur that an organized Parish can no longer provide for the support of a Minister, it shall be competent for the Bishop to provide for services in the said Parish; and such Parish, if in union with the Convention, shall forthwith be entitled only to the privileges of a Mission in the Convention, but union with the Convention shall not cease.

Section 2. If any Parish or Mission shall have failed for three successive years to elect a Vestry (if a Parish), or to send a Deputy to the Convention (if in union with the Convention), or to make the reports required by Section 1, Canon 6, Title I of the General Convention, or to make a financial contribution to the program of the Diocese, such Parish or Mission shall be considered dormant, and may be dissolved by the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

Section 3. Dormant Parishes or Missions may not again become in union with the Convention, except under the provisions of Article VIII of the Constitution.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Ecclesiastical Authority to adopt measures necessary to preserve the property of such Parishes or Missions as may be dormant or virtually extinct, and as to a dormant Parish, if not dissolved pursuant to Section 2 of this Article, the Ecclesiastical Authority may appoint a Minister-in-Charge for such Parish if it be without a Rector, which Minister may be withdrawn at any time.

CANON VI
Of Annual Parish Meetings

Section 1. There shall be an annual meeting of the members of each Parish on the second Monday in January, or some other day to be appointed upon not less than one week's notice, given by the Rector, or the Vestry, if there be no Rector, for the purpose of electing Wardens, members of the Vestry, and Lay Deputies to the Convention, as provided by the Constitution; and of transacting such other business as may be brought before it; PROVIDED, however, if the Constitution or by-laws of the Parish so provide, Wardens may be elected by the Vestry.

Section 2. At least thirty (30) days prior to the annual meeting the Rector shall compile and publish a list of the communicants of the Parish in good standing as defined by the Canons of this Diocese and of the Episcopal Church, and shall indicate which are confirmed communicants.

Section 3. At these meetings the Rector shall preside; but if there be no Rector; or if he be absent, then a presiding officer shall be chosen, and a Secretary appointed.

Section 4. The elections shall be by ballot, and the qualifications of those who may vote shall be prescribed by the by-laws of the Parish; PROVIDED, that at such meetings and elections none shall vote except members who have attained the age of seventeen years.

Section 5. The Vestry shall make to this meeting an annual report of their official acts during the year.

CANON VII Of Vestries

Section 1. in every Parish there shall be a Vestry composed of two Wardens, and not less than three (3) or more than fifteen (15) persons as the Vestry, members of the Parish, to continue in office for the term elected, which shall not exceed five years, and until their successors are elected. The Wardens shall always be confirmed Communicants of the Church who have attained the age of 21 years and who have communicated at least three times in the year preceding their election. The Vestry shall always be confirmed Communicants of the Church who have attained the age of 18 years and who have communicated at least three times in the year preceding their election.

Section 2. The election shall always be by ballot, and the vote necessary for election shall be a majority of the votes cast.

Section 3. The Wardens, and Vestry, thus elected, together with the Rector, if there be one, and if not, then themselves, shall constitute the Vestry, and shall be the official representative of the Parish. The Rector shall preside at all meetings, and in case of his absence one of the Wardens shall preside.

Section 4. The Vestry shall have charge of the temporalities of the Church which shall include those listed as follows:

- (1) They shall provide for all repairs to Church owned properties and insurance thereof;
- (2) They shall pay salaries to all employees who have, prior to appointment, been authorized by the Vestry, to be paid with Church funds. No employee of the Church, except an Assistant Rector, shall be employed without the consent and financial support of the Vestry, but the Rector shall have the right to employ, supervise and fire all employees of the Parish whose duties are concerned with the spiritual mission of the Church, or whose duties, while not primarily of a spiritual or sacerdotal nature, have such bearing on the ability of the Rector to perform his or her duties that the hiring and supervision of those employees should be the Rector's responsibility. While the employment of an Assistant Rector does not require the consent of the Vestry, his or her employment is subject to the financial support of the Vestry given prior to appointment.
- (3) They shall pay current expenses which they have approval to be paid or which they, in their discretion deem necessary to be paid;
- (4) They shall take all necessary steps to raise funds annually or periodically for the support of the Church and its programs.
- (5) They shall keep a proper account of all monies received by the Church and expended by it and make an annual report of the financial condition of the Church at each annual congregational meeting.
- (6) They shall employ, supervise and have the rights to fire those employees who are employed to give advice to the Vestry on matters of finance, long term planning for the use of Church property, and investment of Church monies.
- (7) They shall execute all duties which are now, or may hereafter be imposed upon them by any General Convention of the Diocese.

Section 5. It shall be the especial duty of the Wardens to provide whatever may be necessary for the due celebration of divine worship (as books, vestments, etc.); also for the decency and comfort of the church building and furniture, books for church records, and the elements of the Lord's Supper, and to put down all disorder during public worship. They shall be ready to collect "the alms and other devotions of the people," and in case the Parish or Church is without a Minister shall disburse them: and also provide for public worship by occasional clerical services, or by lay reading, as circumstances will permit. They shall also, during such vacancy, take charge of the church plate, records, etc., and shall present to the Bishop, at each Annual Convention, a report of the Parish. It shall also be their further duty to aid the Rector or Minister in all agencies and efforts for the advancement of the Church -- as Sunday Schools, etc. -- and they may report to the Bishop any irregularities in the mode of conducting public worship, and all offenses by their Ministers, or by any other officiating for him, against Rubrics or Canon, faith or morals.

Section 6. The pastoral connection shall not be dissolved except as provided for by Canon XXVII of this Diocese.

Section 7. When a Parish is vacant, it shall be the duty of the Vestry to notify the Bishop of the fact, and also to elect and invite a Rector; but not without due regard to the ascertained wishes of the congregation and the approval of the Bishop.

Section 8. All church buildings and the personal property contained therein shall be insured in a reliable insurance company or companies for an amount to be determined by the Vestry or other governing body having ownership or supervision of the property.

CANON VIII

Of the Calling and Organization of Conventions

Section 1. Notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be given by the Secretary, in a letter, to every clergyman and Parish and Mission in the Diocese at least thirty (30) days prior to the convening thereof. These letters shall contain a notice of the time and place of holding the Convention, and, if it be a Special Convention, called as provided in the Constitution, for a particular purpose, they shall specify that purpose. Those to the clergy shall also contain the form of Parochial Reports, and those to the Parishes the form of certificate for Deputies, and such extracts from the Constitution, Canons and Standing Resolutions as relate to their appointments.

Section 2. Holy Communion shall be celebrated immediately prior to the organization of the Convention, or immediately following the adjournment of the Convention as the Ecclesiastical Authority may direct. Additional services may be directed by the Ecclesiastical Authority. If the Ecclesiastical Authority sees fit to have a sermon preached by another other than by himself, at these services, he shall appoint the preacher and the alternate.

Section 3. Immediately after the Convention is duly organized, two committees on Credentials shall be appointed. The first, consisting of three clergymen, to whom the roll of the clergy shall be referred; the other, of at least three laypersons, to whom shall be referred the roll of the Deputies, together with the certificates of their appointment. All these committees, severally, shall examine forthwith and report to the Convention upon the lists so referred, specifying in their report which of the clergy and Parishes and Missions are entitled to all the privileges of the Convention, and which of the clergy are, by Article III of the Constitution, debarred from voting, until admitted by a vote of the Convention. Should the committee have considered any certificates unsatisfactory, these shall be then taken up, and the question of their sufficiency settled by the Convention.

CANON IX

Of the Secretary

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep a correct Journal of the proceedings of the Convention, to attest its public acts, preserve its records, and to deliver to his successor all books and papers belonging to it, or appertaining to its business.

Section 2. He shall transmit to each Bishop of The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, to the Secretary of the House of Deputies of the General Convention, and the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, when desired, a copy of all Journals of the Convention of this Diocese, and to every General Convention, a certified list of the Clergy of the Diocese; and shall perform all other duties devolving upon him by the Canons and Regulations of the General Convention.

Section 3. Whenever there is a vacancy in the office of Secretary, its duties shall devolve upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee until a successor is appointed, except, however, if the vacancy occurs while Convention is in session, the presiding officer of the Convention shall appoint a temporary Secretary to serve until the Convention adjourns.

CANON X Of the Treasurer

Section 1. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to collect and disburse all monies collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution are not otherwise regulated. He shall keep regular accounts of all transactions, to be annually laid before the Convention, and shall deliver into the hands of his successors all books, papers and funds relative or belonging to the Convention, which may be in his charge.

Section 2. He shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties in the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) in some reputable Surety Company to be approved by the Finance Department, and shall place and keep on deposit the funds and securities in his hands, in a Depository to be selected and designated by said Finance Department, the premium on said bond to be paid from the Diocesan Budget.

Section 3. He shall keep in force at Diocesan expense a blanket Fidelity bond of not less than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) on all Parish and Mission Treasurers and Treasurers of all other Diocesan organizations as designated by the Finance Department.

Section 4. If the office of Treasurer should become vacant, the Standing Committee shall appoint a Treasurer, to serve until the next regular appointment by the Convention.

CANON XI Of the Historiographer

It shall be the duty of the Historiographer to collect and take charge of all documents and papers pertaining to the history of the Church in this Diocese or in any one of the congregations; also to collect and keep for reference a set of Journals of this Diocese, and of the General Convention, and to report to the Annual Convention the important events in the life of the Church in South Carolina in the year preceding, and the important events in the life of the several congregations of the Diocese in the year preceding.

CANON XII Of the Missions of the Diocese

The missionary work of the Diocese being under the supervision and control of the Bishop, he shall appoint all missionaries and may at his discretion, suspend or remove them.

CANON XIII Trustees of the Diocese

In pursuance of the Act of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina providing for the substitution of a Board of Trustees of the Diocese, in the place and stead of the Bishop and Standing Committee of the same, as Trustees under a former Act, approved on the 20th day of February, 1902, by the Governor of South Carolina.

Section 1. There shall be a Board of Trustees, to consist of the Bishop, ex officio, and eight (8) communicants of the Church, canonically resident in this Diocese if a Presbyter, and a member of a Parish or Mission in union with the Convention if laypersons, that is to say three (3) Presbyters and five (5) laypersons, to be elected by ballot at the Annual Convention. The Chancellor of the Diocese or the Assistant Chancellor, if so designated by the Chancellor, shall be ex officio, a member of the Board, with voice but no vote.

Section 2. The members of the said Board shall hold office until their successors, respectively, shall be elected under this Canon. When the term for which any Trustee shall have been elected be about to expire, the next Annual Convention sitting prior to such expiration shall elect their successors, who shall hold their offices for the term of six (6) years. In case of a vacancy occurring in the said Board by reason of death or resignation of any member of the same, the next Annual Convention shall elect a successor to hold office for the un-expired term of the person so vacating the same or until his successor be elected by the Convention.

Section 3. The Bishop shall be the President of the said Board. The Board shall elect a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and such other officers as its By-laws may provide. The term of office for the officers elected by said Board shall be from the date of election to the next Annual Convention of the Diocese and until their successors are elected. Any two offices may be combined, with the exception of the office of the President. The Secretary may be either from membership of the Board or some other communicant of the Church. The Treasurer may be one of the Trustees, but not necessarily so; and if the office is combined with the office of Secretary, then the Treasurer must be a communicant of the Church. The duties and salaries, if any, of the officers elected by the Board shall be fixed by the by-laws adopted by said Board pursuant to the aforesaid Act of the General Assembly. The Treasurer shall be required to give bond amounting to three-fourths (3/4) of all bonds, stocks, securities, or money which may be entrusted to his keeping, unless the same shall be reduced by resolution adopted by two thirds (2/3) of all the members of the Board.

Section 4. The Board shall make a report to each Annual Convention of the Diocese upon the first day of its meeting, of all their actions and doings, with a detailed statement of all funds in their hands, the investment thereof, and of all changes made by them in investments during the preceding year.

Section 5. The Board shall determine and appoint times for regular meetings of the same, and shall provide for the calling of extra meetings, and of the notification of the same.

Section 6. Four (4) members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business of the said Board.

Section 7. The Board shall apply the net income or principal of any funds held in trust by it in the manner directed by the terms of the instrument creating such trust; it shall apply the net income or principal of any funds entrusted to it for management and investment, by either the Diocese, or any agency or department thereof, any corporation or other person, as it is directed by the entity placing the funds with the Trustees for management and investment; and all net income or principal of any fund held by the Trustees under which the instrument creating the trust or conveying the fund to the Trustees does not direct the manner of application of the funds or the income therefrom, or directs the application to a particular Church purpose in general terms, the said Board shall apply such funds in the manner as directed annually, or at lesser intervals, by Diocesan Council with the advice of the Department of Finance, provided that the Diocesan Council shall not direct the application of any funds contrary to the purposes for which they were placed in the hands of the Trustees.

Section 8. The Trustees shall make to the Department of Finance such reports of its operations and its future income expectations as the Department of Finance shall from time to time require and request; and each fund committed in trust to the Trustees shall be reported separately.

Section 9.

a. It shall be the policy of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina (hereinafter "diocese") to convey title to any and all real property which is not being actively used by the diocese, or which has not been actively used by the diocese for a period of one (1) year, to the Trustees of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina (hereinafter "trustees") to be held in trust for the diocese.

b. The trustees shall convey to the diocese title to any real property to which they hold title upon the written request of the diocese and upon its statement the said real property is to be put into active use by the diocese.

c. Except as otherwise provided in the Canons, any property impressed with a trust at the time the trustees look title and re-conveyed by the trustees to the diocese shall not be alienated, encumbered, or disposed of without the written consent of the trustees.

CANONXIV

Of the Episcopal Church Home for Children

Section 1. The Institution known as "The Episcopal Church Home for Children" is hereby recognized and adopted as the Institution of this Diocese for the purpose of caring for children and families in need of its services.

Section 2. The Episcopal Church Home for Children shall be managed and controlled by a Board consisting of twenty-four (24) Trustees, and the Bishops of the Episcopal Church for the Diocese and the Diocese of Upper South Carolina shall be ex officio members of said Board with full privileges.

The Trustees shall be elected as follows:

- (1) Three persons (1 layperson, 1 clergy and a third person who may be either lay or clergy) shall be elected each year for a term of three (3) years by the Convention of the Diocese upon nomination by the Board of Trustees of the Episcopal Church Home for Children;
- (2) No person who has served two successive terms of three years shall be eligible for re-election as a Trustee, until the expiration of one year after the completion of such service; PROVIDED, however, the service of an un-expired term of office of two years shall be deemed, for purposes of eligibility, a full three-year term. The Standing Committee of the Diocese upon nomination by the Bishop shall fill any un-expired term or terms until the next Convention of the Diocese at which time a successor or successors shall be elected by the Convention to fill the un-expired term or terms. Said Board shall control and manage the Episcopal Church Home for Children, promulgate its own By-laws, and establish and elect its own officers.

CANON XV Of the Episcopal Church Home

Section 1. The Institution known as "The Episcopal Church Home" is hereby recognized and adopted as the institution of this Diocese for the purpose of providing a Christian institution for the care of persons who cannot provide a home for themselves.

Section 2. The Episcopal Church Home shall be managed and controlled by a Board consisting of twelve (12) Trustees, appointed by the Board, six (6) of whom must be Episcopalians. The Bishop of the Diocese or his designated representative and the Chair of the Advisory council shall be ex-officio members. There shall also be an ex-officio trustee who is a vestry person of St. James' church. The trustee's tenure on the Board shall be for his term of office on the vestry of St. James. All ex-officio members shall have all privileges of membership including voting rights. There shall be at least two ordained Episcopal Clergy on the Board. Trustees shall be elected for a term of office of three years and may be re-elected for an additional term of three years. No Trustee who has served two (2) successive terms of three (3) years shall be eligible for reappointment as a Trustee, until the expiration of one (1) year after the completion of such service; PROVIDED, however, that the service of an un-expired term of office shall not be taken into consideration for the purpose of determining eligibility. This Board of Trustees shall control and manage the affairs of the Episcopal Church Home, promulgate its own constitution and by-laws, establish, and elect its own officers.

CANON XVI Of The South Carolina Episcopal Home At Still Hopes

Section 1. The institution known as "The South Carolina Episcopal Home at Still Hopes, Incorporated" is hereby recognized and adopted as an institution of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina, in cooperation with the Diocese of Upper South Carolina, for the purpose of providing care for elderly persons in need of its services.

Section 2. The South Carolina Episcopal Home shall have a Board of Directors, of which one-half shall be elected by the Convention of the Diocese upon nomination by the Board of Directors, and one-half shall be elected or appointed by the Diocese of Upper South Carolina. The Bishops of the two Dioceses shall be ex officio members of the said Board with full privileges. The Board of Directors shall control and manage the Home, promulgate its own by-laws, and establish and elect its own officers.

CANON XVII Of The Pension Fund

Section 1. In conformity with the legislation adopted by the General Convention, setting forth the principles upon which a pension system for the Clergy of the Church and their dependents should be constructed, pursuant to which the corporation, the Church Pension Fund, has been created to carry these principles into effect, the Diocese of South Carolina adopts the system of the Church Pension Fund.

Section 2. The Subcommittee established as a subcommittee of the Department of Finance of the Diocesan Council pursuant to Sub-section (d) of Section 1 of Canon XIX is hereby established as the Committee on the Church Pension Fund, and charged with the responsibility to keep the Diocese in compliance with the Church Pension Fund to the end that all qualified personnel of the Diocese including the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, or the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, shall be covered by the Church Pension Fund.

In general, the Committee shall inform the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of the pension system created by the General Convention, whereby the Clergy of the Church are assured of pensions, as of right, to their widows and minor orphans, and to do all things that may be necessary or advisable in the premises to the end, that the monies necessary to be paid by the Parishes, Missions and other ecclesiastical organizations may be fully and systematically paid.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Diocese to pay to the Church Pension Fund, at its home office, the premiums payable on behalf of the Bishop of the Diocese, the Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop, the Archdeacon, and other qualified personnel on the Diocesan Staff, if there be such.

It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of every Parish and Mission in this Diocese to pay to the Church Pension Fund, at its home office, the premiums payable as required by the Church Pension Fund.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of every clergyman receiving remuneration, to furnish a statement of such remuneration, and of every change in the amount thereof, as soon as such change shall occur to the Church Pension Fund, at its home office.

CANON XVIII Of The Diocesan Council

Section 1. The Diocesan Council as hereinafter constituted shall administer and carry on the Missionary, Educational and Social Work of the Church by this Diocese and such other work as may be committed to it by the Diocesan Convention and for the initiation and development of new work between meetings of the Diocesan Convention as it may deem necessary and to receive and administer all funds raised within the Diocese subject, however, to the provisions of the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese.

The Bishop of the Diocese shall be the President of the Diocesan Council and Executive Head of all such work, and nothing hereinafter provided shall be construed as in any way conflicting with this Canonical and Constitutional authority as the administrative head of the Diocese.

Section 2. The Diocesan Council shall be composed of:

- (1) The Bishop of the Diocese
- (2) The Bishop Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishop, if there be any
- (3) The Assistant Bishop, if any
- (4) The Archdeacon of the Diocese, if non-parochial
- (5) The Executive Secretary of the Diocese, ex-officio
- (6) The Treasurer of the Diocese
- (7) The Chancellor of the Diocese
- (8) The President of the Standing Committee
- (9) The President of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese
- (10) A representative of the E.Y.C. The method of selecting this representative shall be determined by the Department of Council responsible for Youth Ministries.
- (11) Six (6) Presbyters and six (6) laypersons, to be elected whenever vacancies exist by the Annual Diocesan Convention, for a term of three (3) years or until a successor is elected.
- (12) A person representing the organized Episcopal student groups on College and University Campuses in the Diocese; such person to be a communicant in good standing of a Parish or Mission in union with this Convention, and such person to be no less than eighteen years of age, nor more than twenty-two years of age at the time of his appointment. The method of selecting this representative shall be determined by the Department of Council responsible for College Work.

(13) The Dean of the Cathedral

Within thirty (30) days after the close of the Convention in 1995, the Deans of each Deanery shall convene the Convention delegates in that deanery and elect one (1) Presbyter and one (1) layperson from a term of three (3) years or until a successor is elected. No Deanery shall have more than one (1) Presbyter and one (1) layperson, thus elected, representing them.

In addition to the elected members of the Diocesan Council, the following shall have a vote:

- (1) The Bishops
- (2) The President of the Episcopal Churchwomen
- (3) The Treasurer of the Diocese

All other non-elected members shall have a seat and voice, but no vote.

After serving one full term, the aforesaid elected members of the Diocesan Council shall be ineligible for membership on the Diocesan Council for a period of one Convention year.

The members of the Diocesan Council shall remain in office until their successors are elected. The Diocesan Council shall have power to fill any vacancy in its elective membership.

No person shall serve on the Diocesan Council either elected or non-elected who is not a member in good standing of a Parish or Mission in union with the Convention.

Section 3. The Diocesan Council shall be organized by the Bishop into departments, including a Department of Finance, and such other departments as he may deem necessary to carry out the program and work of the Diocese, including but not limited to the following activities:

Missions	Church Extension
Christian Education	Youth Ministries
College Work	Christian Social Relations
Institutional Ministries	Evangelism
Stewardship	Camps and Conferences

Each department so organized shall have at least one (1) voting member of the Diocesan Council. The Bishop shall annually appoint fit persons to serve as chair of each of the departments. These appointments shall be subject to confirmation by the Diocesan Council.

Subject to confirmation by the Diocesan Council, each department may increase its own membership; having, if practicable, representation from the various deaneries; such additional members to have votes and seats in such department, but not in the Diocesan Council.

The Bishop of the Diocese shall be ex officio a member of each department, with the right to preside at any meeting when present.

Section 4. There shall be maintained a permanent Diocesan Headquarters at a place fixed by the Diocesan Council.

Section 5. The Diocesan Council may enact all necessary by-laws for its government and for the government of its several departments, subject to the provisions of this Canon. Each department shall make to the Bishop and Council annually and at such other times and in such form as it may require, a report of the work done under its direction and shall file a duplicate copy of such report with the Diocesan Headquarters.

Section 6. The Diocesan Council shall submit to each annual meeting of the Diocesan Convention a report of the work done under its supervision during the preceding year, which report shall include the annual report of the Treasurer.

Section 7. The Diocesan Council shall meet for organization at such place and time as the Bishop may designate. It shall hold other fixed meetings as it may appoint in its by-laws. The Bishop may call such other special meetings as may seem to him to be necessary. A majority of the elected members shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, shall serve as Chairman. If neither the Bishop nor the Bishop Coadjutor be present at the meeting, the Diocesan Council shall choose a chairman from its own membership.

Section 8. The Diocesan Council, through its Departments, shall submit to the Annual Convention of the Diocese a proposed program of activities for the year in which the Convention is held, together with an operating budget it feels necessary to implement the program, assigning as nearly as possible the estimated amounts necessary for implementing each separate activity. Both the proposed program of each department and the operating budget, which shall include the general operating expenses of the Diocese, shall be approved by the Diocesan Council before it is submitted to the Convention.

Section 9. The Diocesan Council shall enter upon the duties imposed by this Canon immediately after the election of its members provided for in Section 2 of this Canon.

The Convention shall adopt a program, including a budget which shall be administered by the Diocesan Council during the year in which the Convention is held. If no program or budget is adopted by the Convention, the last program and budget so adopted shall be used for the year.

CANON XIX

Of The Departments of The Diocesan Council

Section 1. Of the Department of Finance

- (1) The Department shall be composed of the Chief Fiscal Officer of the Diocese, as designated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, the Treasurer of the Diocese, and not more than four members of the Diocesan Council, with such additional members as may be chosen and confirmed in conformity with Canon XVIII, Section 3.
- (2) The Department shall act as a Council of Advice to the Bishop and to the Diocesan Council in the financial matters of the Diocese.
- (3) The Department may require reports from the Treasurer of the Diocese, the Trustees of the Diocese, and such other persons as shall be charged with the receipts and custody of funds for any Diocesan purposes, and they shall respond to all requests of the Department for financial reports.
- (4) The Department shall maintain, repair and insure all property of the Diocese, except as otherwise provided in these Canons, whether title thereto be in the Trustees of the Diocese, or some other agency of the Diocese, as well as the property of any dormant Parish or Mission. To properly implement this responsibility, there is hereby established a subcommittee known as the Property and Insurance Committee, consisting of the Chairman of the Department, the Treasurer of the Diocese, the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Diocese, and the Chief Fiscal Officer of the Diocese, as designated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, which shall be charged with these specific duties.

Section 2. Of the Other Departments of The Diocesan Council

- (1) The other Departments of the Diocesan Council shall develop and execute the programs and activities of the Diocese assigned by the Diocesan Council, and report regularly to the Council, and may organize into as many Divisions as found necessary.
- (2) The Department charged with Camps and Conferences shall be responsible for the maintenance and use of all property designated for camps and conferences.

CANON XX

Of Baskervill Ministries

Section 1. The institution known as "Baskervill Ministries" at Pawley's Island, South Carolina is hereby recognized and adopted as an institution of this Diocese for the purpose of providing an Episcopal outreach in the Diocese.

Section 2. The Baskervill Ministries shall have a Board of Directors, which shall consist of twelve (12) members, half of whom shall be nominated by the Bishop and confirmed by the Diocesan Convention, and half of whom shall be elected by the Board of Directors. Members shall serve on a rotation basis as described in the bylaws of Baskervill Ministries. The Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of South Carolina or his representative shall be members of the Board of Directors ex-officio.

CANON XXI Of Deaneries

Section 1. The Diocese shall be divided into Deaneries, the number and boundaries of which shall be determined from time to time by the Ecclesiastical Authority. The presiding officer of each Deanery shall be a Dean appointed by the Ecclesiastical Authority to serve for one year, such appointment to be made at each Annual Convention.

Section 2. There shall be regularly scheduled meetings of the Clergy in each Deanery. (This shall include canonically resident clergy as well as other clergy, retired and/or licensed by the Bishop who reside in the Deanery). In each Deanery it shall be the duty of all Clergy to meet as a Deanery Clericus at regular times scheduled by the Dean, to discuss affairs of diocesan and regional concern, and other matters that will strengthen collegiality and further the work of the Church.

Section 3.

- (1) The Deanery Convocation shall be composed of all Clergy physically residing or serving a parish or mission of that Deanery who are entitled to seat, voice and vote at the Diocesan Convention, lay deputies to the Convention from each congregation within the Deanery and lay representatives to the Diocesan Council from the Deanery. All such Clergy, deputies and Diocesan Council members from the Deanery shall have seat, voice and vote.
- (2) The Convocation will meet at least two times each year, one to give input during the formation of the Diocesan Budget and at other times at the call of the Dean or of the Ecclesiastical Authority.
- (3) The Deanery Convocation shall have the responsibility for the planning and financial aspects of the Deanery, including advising the Department of Congregational Development on grants and loans to congregations within the Deanery, and such other responsibilities as may be assigned to it by the Diocesan Council. It shall also be the responsibility of the Convocation to study the needs and opportunities of the deanery and to develop programs, when appropriate, consistent with those needs; to elect Deanery Representatives to the Diocesan Council; and to assist through the year all Diocesan officers, the Deans and the Diocesan Council in the work and mission of the Church.
- (4) The Dean shall be the executive head of all such work and shall delegate necessary authority and responsibility as he or she deems necessary to carry out the work. The Deanery Convocation shall elect from among its own members a Vice-Chairperson, to preside at meetings in the absence of the Dean, and a Secretary/Treasurer to record all actions and maintain such records in a permanent form.
- (5) Only such actions of the Deanery Convocation which are the result of a majority vote of the Convocation with a quorum present shall constitute official actions of the Deanery Convocation. A majority of clergy eligible to vote in the Convocation and lay deputies from a majority of the congregations entitled to representation, when duly assembled, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

CANON XXII The Establishment of a Cathedral Church

Section 1. A Cathedral Parish may be established by the Bishop in the manner provided by this Canon, and when so established shall be known and used as the Cathedral Church of the Diocese.

Section 2. The Cathedral Parish shall be established by written agreement between the Bishop and the Parish to be designated as the Cathedral Church, which to become effective and binding upon the Diocese must be approved by both the Bishop and Council of the Diocese and the Standing Committee of the Diocese, and shall include the following provisions:

- (1) That the Parish to be designated as the Cathedral Church shall retain ownership of property, both real, chattel and mixed, of the Cathedral Parish, except such chattel property as may be furnished by or for the use of the Diocese at the Cathedral Church.
- (2) That the Parish to be designated as the Cathedral Church shall be responsible for all items of expense in connection with the operation of the Cathedral Church, including but not limited to the salary of the Dean of the Cathedral, and all assistants and persons employed by the Cathedral Church, except to the extent the Diocese obligates itself in the aforesaid written agreement establishing the Cathedral Church.
- (3) That the Parish to be designated as the Cathedral Church shall be solely responsible for all capital improvements, additions and alterations to the property of the Parish designated as the Cathedral Church; and the Diocese shall be responsible for no capital improvements, additions or alterations unless specific authority therefore is authorized by a Convention of the Diocese.
- (4) That the parties thereto presently intend and expect that the contract shall continue in full force and effect as long as both parties thereto shall exist; but it is mutually agreed that either party may at any time cancel the contract by delivering one year's written notice thereof to the other party.

Section 3. The Parish designated as the Cathedral Church shall not be deprived of any privileges afforded Parishes under the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese and the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, except as provided in this Canon, nor relieved of any duties or responsibilities imposed upon it hereby; and such Parish shall continue its activities as a separate entity, but shall be known as a Cathedral Parish.

Section 4. The Rector of the Cathedral Parish shall be the Dean of the Cathedral Church, and when the Cathedral Parish is vacant, it shall be the duty of its Vestry to elect and invite a Rector, but not without due regard to the ascertained wishes of its congregation, and the prior written approval of the Bishop.

Section 5. The operation of the Cathedral Parish shall be in the control of the Dean of the Cathedral as Rector, and its Vestry, as provided by Canons for Parishes, and for Diocesan functions at the Cathedral Church shall be in the control of its Cathedral Chapter as herein established, both operating with the delineation of uses and responsibilities set forth in the agreement establishing the Cathedral Church.

Section 6. The Cathedral Chapter shall be composed of the Bishop of the Diocese, as Chairman, the Dean of the Cathedral, the President of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, one Representative of the Diocesan Council elected by that body for a one year term, the Senior Warden of the Cathedral Parish and one Clergyman and three Laypersons elected by the Convention for three (3) year terms. The said elected members to take office upon their election provided by this Canon.

Section 7. The Bishop may appoint Honorary Canons to the Cathedral Church of the Diocese.

CANON XXIII

Of a Commission on Ministry

Section 1. Pursuant to the Canons of General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America there is hereby established a Commission on Ministry in the Diocese of South Carolina, consisting of not more than five (5) and not less than three (3) Presbyters, and not more than five (5) and not less than three (3) laypersons, nominated by the Bishop and confirmed by vote of the Annual Convention of the Diocese. The number of Presbyters and the number of laypersons on the Commission to be determined by the Bishop. The term of office of each member of the Commission shall be three years and until his or her successor is nominated and confirmed.

Section 2. The Commission on Ministry hereby established shall have the duties and powers as prescribed by the Canons of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America. The Chairman shall be a Presbyter, and both the Chairman and Secretary shall be named annually by the Bishop from among the Commission.

CANON XXIV
Of a Commission on Architecture and Construction

Section 1. The Bishop shall appoint annually a Commission on Architecture and Construction, consisting of two Priests and three Laymen.

Section 2. All Parishes in the Diocese are urged to consult with this Commission when any construction or renovation of buildings is contemplated.

Section 3. All Missions in the Diocese and Institutions owned exclusively by this Diocese shall be required to have the approval of this Commission when any construction or renovation of buildings is contemplated.

Section 4. Where grants or loans are made by the Diocese or one of its affiliated agencies for any construction or renovation of buildings the approval of this Commission shall be required.

CANON XXV
Elections

Section 1. No person shall hold elected membership at the same time on more than one of the following Boards of the Diocese:

Diocesan Council
Standing Committee
Board of Trustees of the Diocese.

Section 2. In the elections for membership, the Diocesan Council, Board of Trustees, and the Standing Committee, as well as Deputies to General Convention (but not the Alternates) the vote necessary for election shall be by a majority. In all other elections the vote necessary for election shall be by a plurality.

Title II

Of Ministers and Their Duties

CANON XXVI
Of the Parish Register and Reports

Section 1. Each Clergyman shall keep a register of all baptisms, marriages and burials solemnized by him or in his Parish by another Minister; and if he has a cure of souls, a list of persons confirmed in his Parish or congregation; and of communicants, and baptized persons not communicants belonging to same.

Section 2. The register so kept shall specify the name and date of birth of the person baptized, the names of the parents and sponsors -- in the case of an adult the name, and those of the witnesses -- the names of persons married and buried with the date of every rite performed.

Section 3. In every Parish these entries shall be made by the Minister, in a book provided by the Church Wardens for that purpose -- and in case there be no Minister, the Wardens themselves shall see that such registry be made -- which book shall be known as the Parish Register, and preserved as a part of the record of the Church. And it shall be the duty of every Minister, in case of removal from a Parish, to deposit this register with the Church Wardens.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of every Minister of this Church in charge of a Parish or congregation, or if there be no Minister in charge, of the Church Wardens, or other proper officer, to prepare upon the blank form adopted by the General Convention a report for the year ending December 31 preceding, and to deliver the same to the Bishop of the Diocese, or where there is no Bishop, to the Secretary of the Diocese, not later than February 1. This report shall include the following information: (1) The number of baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and burials during that year; the total number of baptized persons and communicants at the time of the report; (2) a summary of the receipts and expenditures, from whatever source derived, and for whatever purpose used; and (3) a statement of the property held by the Parish whether real or personal, with an appraisal of its value together with a statement of the indebtedness of the Parish, if any, and of the amount of insurance carried. And every Minister not in charge of any Parish or congregation shall also report his occasional services, and if there have been none, the causes or reasons which have prevented the same. And these reports, or such parts of them as the Bishop may deem proper, shall be entered in the Journal.

Section 5. The fiscal year shall begin January 1.

Section 6. All reports shall be made in the form of a schedule, prepared by the Secretary, in accordance with the provisions of this Canon. And the failure of any persons to make out his Parochial Report according to this form shall be deemed sufficient cause for the exclusion of such report from the pages of the Journal.

CANON XXVII Candidates for Orders, Ineligible, etc.

No person who is a candidate for Orders shall be admitted to a seat in any Convention of the Diocese as a Lay Deputy.

Title III

Of Discipline

CANON XXVIII Dissolution of Pastoral Ministry

Section 1. Except as provided in Title III, Canon 17, Section 5 of the Canons of The Episcopal Church, a Rector may not resign as Rector of a Parish without the consent of its Vestry, nor may any Rector canonically or lawfully elected and in charge of any Parish be removed therefrom by said Vestry against his will, except as hereinafter provided.

Section 2. If for any urgent reason, the Rector or the Vestry of a Parish shall desire a separation and dissolution of the pastoral relation, and the parties be not agreed respecting a separation and dissolution, written notice of such desire and disagreement stating the specific reasons for the intervention shall be given to the Ecclesiastical Authority by either party, and a copy of such notice shall be given to the other party to such disagreement.

Section 3. Within fifteen days of receipt of such notice the Ecclesiastical Authority shall appoint one Presbyter and one Lay Person, neither of whom is a member of the parish involved, to make a written report to the Bishop stating the nature of the dispute and the respective positions of the Vestry and the Rector. Such report shall be delivered to the Bishop, the Rector and the Vestry as soon as possible, but in no case later than thirty (30) days after their appointment. Within ten days of the receipt of the report, the Bishop shall initiate mediation proceedings and each of the parties shall participate in such mediation in good faith and labor for an amicable resolution of differences. Each party shall be entitled to have representation in such mediation proceeding.

Section 4. If the pastoral process described in Section 3 does not resolve the difference between the parties, as evidenced by written notice thereof to the Bishop from either of the parties:

- (1) Within thirty days after such notice, the Bishop shall conduct a hearing with regard to the conditions of dissolution of the pastoral relation. The Bishop shall fix a date, time and place therefor, shall notify the parties thereof, and shall conduct such hearing by allowing each party thereof, or a representative thereof, to present a statement of position and the reasons therefor. No testimony or other evidence shall be presented at such hearing, unless allowed by the Bishop for compelling reasons and in the interest of justice.
- (2) If the pastoral relationship is to be continued, the Bishop shall require the parties to agree on definitions of responsibility and accountability for the Rector and the Vestry.
- (3) If the pastoral relationship is to be dissolved:

- (a) The Bishop shall render a Godly judgment, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, requiring such compensation or indemnity (if any) as he shall deem just and compassionate, and under taking to offer (as he deems suitable) such supportive services as career counseling and vocational retraining. Said judgment shall be final; shall be in writing; and shall set forth the reasons for the terms and conditions thereof.
- (b) A copy of said judgment shall be furnished to each of the parties and a copy be available for public inspection.

Section 5. In either event, the Bishop shall offer appropriate supportive services to the Priest and to the Parish.

Section 6. In the event of the failure or refusal of either party to comply with the terms of said judgment, the Bishop may inflict such penalties as may be provided by the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese; and in default of any provisions for such penalties therein, the Bishop may act as follows:

- (1) In the case of a Rector, inhibit such Rector from officiating in such parish until the priest shall comply with said judgment.
- (2) In the case of Vestry, recommend to Diocesan Convention that the union of the Parish with Convention shall cease until it shall have complied with the Bishop's judgment.

Section 7. If there be no Ordinary, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall select a Bishop of an adjacent diocese to act as the Bishop, and with like force and effect.

Section 8. For urgent cause, the Bishop may extend the time periods specified in this Canon, provided that all be done to expedite these proceedings. All parties shall be notified in writing of the exact length of any time extension that may be provided.

Section 9.

- (1) Statements made during the course of proceedings under this Canon are not admissible in any proceeding under Title IV of the Canons of The Episcopal Church and/or Canon XXVIII of this Diocese. This section 8 does not, however, require the exclusion of evidence in any proceeding under the Canons of this Diocese, or of The Episcopal Church which is otherwise discoverable and admissible, merely because it was also presented in proceedings under this Canon.
- (2) In the course of proceedings under this Canon, if a charge is made against the Rector that could give rise to a disciplinary proceeding under the Canons of this Diocese or the Episcopal Church, all proceedings under this Canon shall be stayed until the charge has been resolved or withdrawn.

Section 10. This canon shall not apply in contravention of any right of any Rector, Parish Congregation, or Vestry under the laws of the Civil Authority.

CANON XXIX
Of the Trial of a Priest or Deacon
[in conformity with the current
Canons of The Episcopal Church]

Section 1. The Ecclesiastical Court of the Diocese.

- (1) There is hereby established an Ecclesiastical Court for The Episcopal Church in South Carolina (hereinafter the "Court") for the trial of Priests and Deacons whose name and style shall be as follows: The Ecclesiastical Court of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina.
- (2) The members of the Ecclesiastical Court shall be eleven (11) in number and shall include lay persons and Priests or Deacons. There shall be a majority of the Priests or Deacons serving on the Court but at no time shall that majority be by more than one. The lay members of the Court shall be residents of the State of South Carolina and shall be communicants in good standing of a parish or mission in the Diocese, and the Priests or Deacons shall be canonically resident in the Diocese and entitled to a seat in the diocesan convention.

- (3) The members of the Court shall be elected annually at the Convention of the Diocese for terms of three (3) years and until their successors are elected. The election of the members of the Court shall in such manner that there shall be staggered terms following the election of the initial Court at the convention of the diocese held in 1996: viz, in the diocesan convention in 1996, there shall be elected eleven members of the Court: five lay persons (hereinafter "Lay Order") and six Priests or Deacons (hereinafter "Clergy Order"); three of those elected (one from the Lay Order and two from the Clergy Order) shall serve for one (1) year; four of those elected (two from the Lay Order and two from the Clergy Order) shall serve for two (2) years; and four of those elected (two from the Lay Order and two from the Clergy Order) shall serve for three years). Thereafter, their successors shall be elected for terms of three years and until their successors are elected.
- (4) No member of the Court shall serve for longer than two successive terms, but shall be eligible for election to the Court after having been a non-member for more than one year.
- (5) The Court shall annually, within two months following the Diocesan Convention, elect from its members one member who shall be the Presiding Judge whose term of office shall be for one year and until a successor is elected.
- (6) The death, disability rendering a person unable to act, resignation or declination to serve as a member of the Court shall constitute a vacancy on the Court.
- (7) Notice of resignation or declinations to serve shall be given by members of the court in writing to the Presiding Judge of the Court.
- (8) If any Priest elected to membership of the Ecclesiastical Court is elected a Bishop, or if any lay person elected membership of the Ecclesiastical Court is ordained prior to the commencement of a trial, that person shall immediately cease to be a member of the Ecclesiastical Court. If either event occurs following the commencement of a trial, the person shall continue to serve until the completion of the trial and the rendering of a verdict thereon.
- (9) Vacancies, other than for cause as provided hereinafter, shall be filled by the Ecclesiastical Court by and with the advice and consent of the Bishop of the Diocese or the Ecclesiastical Authority from the same order which the former member represented and for the un-expired term of that member being replaced.
- (10)
 - (a) Upon the receipt of a presentment, the Court shall convene as the Ecclesiastical Trial Court (hereinafter "Trial Court") to determine and resolve any challenges to the membership of the Trial Court from the Church Attorney or from the Respondent's Attorney.
 - (b) The members of the Court who are impaneled to serve as an Ecclesiastical Trial Court shall be no less than seven (7) members of the Court and the majority of the priests or deacons serving on a Trial Court shall at no time be by no more than one. Challenges for cause shall be made in writing addressed to the Presiding Judge of the Court not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date set for the trial of a Priest or Deacon by the Court.
 - (c) Those members of the Court shall be excluded from serving on the Trial Court by the Presiding Judge if they are members of the diocesan staff, employees working in the diocesan headquarters or in any activity controlled in whole or in part by the diocesan office; if they have expressed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the Respondent; if they have knowledge of the facts about the case; if they are to be a witness in the trial of the case; if they are related to the Respondent either by birth or marriage within the fifth degree of kinship; if they are members of the same Church or Parish as the Respondent, the Accuser or the Victim; or state, on the record, that they are not able to give either the Respondent or the diocese a fair and impartial trial.
 - (d) After the Trial Court has heard and ruled on the challenges, if it is determined by the Presiding Judge that there are seven (7) or nine (9) members, including the Presiding Judge, of the Trial Court who are qualified of which the Clergy Order has no more than a majority of one member then they shall constitute the Trial Court for that particular case. If there remain an even number of members who are qualified, the Trial Court shall determine by lot the exclusion of the member or members, other than the Presiding Judge, in order properly to constitute a Trial

Court of not less than seven (7) members. If exclusion by lot cannot be used properly to constitute a court of at least seven (7) members, including the Presiding Judge, then the Trial Court, by and with the consent of the Bishop, or the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall appoint from the order affected the number or numbers necessary to comply with the canon. Such appointment to membership shall be of a temporary nature and only for the purpose of sitting on the trial of a particular case. The member or members so appointed shall be subject to being challenged for cause. If the Presiding Judge has been disqualified for cause, then the qualified members of the Trial Court shall elect an Acting Trial Judge from the qualified members of the Trial Court for the purpose of presiding over the trial for which it has been constituted.

- (11) (a) The Chancellor shall give the members of the Ecclesiastical Court and of the Trial Court his/her opinion as to the procedure required by the Canons for them to organize and comply with the provisions of canon law but shall not directly or indirectly express any opinion as to the facts of the case or the guilt or innocence of the respondent. After a Lay Assessor or Assessors have been appointed, the Chancellor shall have no further communication with the Trial Court, unless specifically asked by the Trial Court to give an opinion on canon law. When requested by the Lay Assessor, Church Attorney, or by counsel for the Respondent, the Chancellor shall give his/her opinion on the meaning or purport of a provision of the Constitutions and Canons of the Diocese and The Episcopal Church. The Chancellor shall be permitted to attend all open sessions of trials before the Court.
- (b) As soon as possible after the Trial Court has been established, the members of the Trial Court shall assemble with the Chancellor of the Diocese and the Chancellor shall cause each to take an oath as follows:

I will well and truly try and true deliverance make between The Episcopal Church in South Carolina and the respondent-- (name)--- whom you shall have in your charge, and true deliverance make according to the law and the evidence.

The oath shall be reduced to writing, signed by each member of the Trial Court, and made part of the record in the case.
- (c) The Code of Judicial Conduct (SCRAP Rule 501), to the extent it is practicable, shall govern the conduct of members of the Trial Court.
- (12) The Trial Court shall appoint a Clerk and, if necessary, Assistant Clerks who shall be Priest or Deacons or adult confirmed communicants in good standing in the Diocese and who shall serve at the pleasure of the Court. The Trial Court may appoint one of its own members as its Clerk. If the Clerk is not a member of the Trial Court, he or she shall not express to the members of the Trial Court any opinion about the facts of the case or concerning the guilt or innocence of the respondent, and shall not participate in any deliberations of the Trial Court.
- (13) The Trial Court shall be governed by the portion of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure set forth in Appendix A to Canon IV of the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States (hereinafter "National Canons").
- (14) The Trial Court shall be governed by the Federal Rules of Evidence in the conduct of a trial.
- (15) The Trial Court shall appoint a Reporter who shall be a qualified court reporter or public stenographer who shall serve at the pleasure of the Trial Court and who shall make a verbatim transcription of all proceedings held before the Trial Court including pretrial motions and hearings on challenges to the membership of the Trial Court.
- (16) The Trial Court shall keep a record of the proceedings in each case brought before it and the record shall be certified by the Presiding Judge of the Court. If the record cannot be authenticated by the Presiding Judge by reason of the Presiding Judge's death, disability or absence, it shall be authenticated by a member designated by the Court to do so.

Court of not less than seven (7) members. If exclusion by lot cannot be used properly to constitute a court of at least seven (7) members, including the Presiding Judge, then the Trial Court, by and with the consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, or the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall appoint from the order affected the number or numbers necessary to comply with the canon. Such appointment to membership shall be of a temporary nature and only for the purpose of sitting on the trial of a particular case. The member or members so appointed shall be subject to being challenged for cause. If the Presiding Judge has been disqualified for cause, then the qualified members of the Trial Court shall elect an Acting Trial Judge from the qualified members of the Trial Court for the purpose of presiding over the trial for which it has been constituted.

- (11) (a) The Chancellor shall give the members of the Ecclesiastical Court and of the Trial Court his/her opinion as to the procedure required by the Canons for them to organize and comply with the provisions of canon law but shall not directly or indirectly express any opinion as to the facts of the case or the guilt or innocence of the respondent. After a Lay Assessor or Assessors have been appointed, the Chancellor shall have no further communication with the Trial Court, unless specifically asked by the Trial Court to give an opinion on canon law. When requested by the Lay Assessor, Church Attorney, or by counsel for the Respondent, the Chancellor shall give his/her opinion on the meaning or purport of a provision of the Constitutions and Canons of the Diocese and the National Church. The Chancellor shall be permitted to attend all open sessions of trials before the Court.
- (b) As soon as possible after the Trial Court has been established, the members of the Trial Court shall assemble with the Chancellor of the Diocese and the Chancellor shall cause each to take an oath as follows:
- I will well and truly try and true deliverance make between The Episcopal Church in South Carolina and the respondent--- (name)--- whom you shall have in your charge, and true deliverance make according to the law and the evidence.
- The oath shall be reduced to writing, signed by each member of the Trial Court, and made part of the record in the case.
- (c) The Code of Judicial Conduct (SCRAP Rule 501), to the extent it is practicable, shall govern the conduct of members of the Trial Court.
- (12) The Trial Court shall appoint a Clerk and, if necessary, Assistant Clerks who shall be Priest or Deacons or adult confirmed communicants in good standing in the Diocese and who shall serve at the pleasure of the Court. The Trial Court may appoint one of its own members as its Clerk. If the Clerk is not a member of the Trial Court, he or she shall not express to the members of the Trial Court any opinion about the facts of the case or concerning the guilt or innocence of the respondent, and shall not participate in any deliberations of the Trial Court.
- (13) The Trial Court shall be governed by the portion of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure set forth in Appendix A to Canon IV of the Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States (hereinafter "National Canons").
- (14) The Trial Court shall be governed by the Federal Rules of Evidence in the conduct of a trial.
- (15) The Trial Court shall appoint a Reporter who shall be a qualified court reporter or public stenographer who shall serve at the pleasure of the Trial Court and who shall make a verbatim transcription of all proceedings held before the Trial Court including pretrial motions and hearings on challenges to the membership of the Trial Court.
- (16) The Trial Court shall keep a record of the proceedings in each case brought before it and the record shall be certified by the Presiding Judge of the Court. If the record cannot be authenticated by the Presiding Judge by reason of the Presiding Judge's death, disability or absence, it shall be authenticated by a member designated by the Court to do so.

- (17) The documents relating to the trial, including the verbatim transcript of proceedings shall, upon the conclusion of the trial, forthwith be delivered by the Clerk of the Trial Court to the Chancellor who shall provide for their safe keeping in the Diocesan Office. None of these documents shall be made available to anyone without written authorization of the Chancellor.

Section 2. The Lay Assessors

- (1) The Trial court shall appoint at least one but no more than three Lay Assessors (hereinafter "Lay Assessor") each of whom shall be a Communicant of a parish or mission of the Diocese, a Notary Public commissioned by the State of South Carolina, and a practicing attorney admitted to practice law in the State of South Carolina. Evidence of the qualifications of the Lay Assessors shall be contained in a statement from the rector of the parish in which he/she or they are members, and an affidavit of the Assessor or Assessors stating their qualifications as attorneys.
- (2) The Lay Assessor shall have no vote and shall not express to the court or to the public his/her or their opinion as to the facts or as to the guilt or innocence of the Respondent or the Trial Court's recommendation of punishment.
- (3) It shall be the duty of the Lay Assessor to give the Trial Court an opinion on any question of law, procedure or evidence, but not on any question of doctrine, upon which the Trial Court or any member thereof, or either party shall desire an opinion. Any question of whether a question is a matter of doctrine shall be decided by the Trial Court by a majority vote.
- (4)
 - (a) The Lay Assessor shall rule initially upon all motions made during the trial of a case, all objections made to the admission of evidence, and all motions made after the swearing in of the Trial Court.
 - (b) The Lay Assessor shall hear, in the presence of the Trial Court, argument of counsel on any disputed matter and shall determine the matter conditionally subject to the right of the Trial Court to overrule the decision by majority vote. In making a ruling, the Lay Assessor shall preface the determination by stating, "Subject to the right of a majority of the Court to reverse, the----is (denied, sustained, or granted as the case may be)."
 - (c) The President of the Trial Court shall, immediately following the ruling of the Lay Assessor, ask the members of the Trial Court if there is any objection to the ruling. If there is none, the President of the Court shall state, "The ruling is affirmed." If there is objection, the Presiding Judge shall poll the members of the Trial Court without further discussion of the matter and announce that a majority of the Trial Court "affirm" or "reverse the ruling of the Lay Assessor." If any member of the Trial Court request that there be a recess to discuss the matter with the Lay Assessor, the Presiding Judge shall call for a recess of the trial and the members of the Trial Court shall retire with the Lay Assessor to discuss, in private, the basis of the Lay Assessor's ruling. The Trial Court shall thereafter be called to order and the members of the court shall vote, on the record, to affirm or reverse the Lay Assessor's ruling.

Section 3. The Church Attorney.

- (1) After receiving a charge against a Priest or Deacon which it determines requires an investigation, the Standing Committee of the Diocese shall appoint a Church Attorney to investigate the charge on behalf of the Standing Committee; to represent the Diocese of South Carolina in the trial of the person or persons charged; and to represent the Diocese of South Carolina in an appeal, if any, by the person or persons charged, to the Court of Review.
- (2) The Church Attorney shall be a communicant in good standing of a parish or mission of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina and a practicing attorney admitted to practice law in the State of South Carolina. Evidence of the qualifications of the Church Attorney shall be contained in a statement from the rector of the parish in which he or she is a member, and an affidavit of the Church Attorney stating his or her qualifications as an attorney.

Section 4. Of Presentments.

- (1) A Presentment to the Ecclesiastical Court may be issued only by the Standing Committee of this diocese as provided in this Canon and in the Canons of the Episcopal Church in the United States.
- (2) A charge against a Priest or Deacon shall be in writing, verified and addressed to the Standing Committee of this diocese and, except as otherwise provided in Title IV of the Episcopal Church in the United States, if the Priest or Deacon is canonically resident in this diocese.
- (3) A Charge may be made as by those persons as provided for in Canon IV, Section 3, of the National Canons.
- (4) If a complaint or accusation is brought to the Bishop by a person claiming to be the alleged Victim, or the spouse of an alleged Victim, or by the parent or guardian of an alleged Victim who is a minor or is under a disability, of an Offense of Crime, Immorality or Conduct Unbecoming a Member of the Clergy, the Bishop, after consultation with the alleged Victim, the alleged Victim's spouse, or the alleged Victim's parent or guardian, may appoint an Advocate to assist those persons in understanding and participating in the disciplinary processes of this Church, to obtain assistance to formulate and submit an appropriate Charge and in obtaining assistance in spiritual matters, if the alleged Victim, spouse, parent or guardian so choose. Alleged Victims or Complainants shall also be entitled to the counsel of an attorney and/or Advocate of their choice.
- (5) Whenever the Bishop has sufficient reason to believe that any Priest or Deacon canonically resident has committed an Offense and the interests and good order and discipline of the Church require investigation by the Standing Committee, the Bishop shall, after consultation with the Chancellor, concisely and clearly inform the Standing Committee in writing as to the nature and facts surrounding each alleged Offense and specifications of each Offense but without judgment or comment upon the allegations or guilt, and the Standing Committee shall proceed as if a Charge had been filed.
- (6) Any Priest or Deacon canonically resident who deems himself or herself to be under imputation, by rumor or otherwise, of any Offense or misconduct for which he or she could be tried in an Ecclesiastical Court, may, on his or her own behalf, complain to and request of the Bishop that an inquiry with regard to such imputation be instituted. Upon receipt of such request by a Member of the Clergy, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to cause the matter to be investigated.
- (7) Except as expressly provided in the Canon, the Bishop of the Diocese shall not prefer a Charge against a Priest or Deacon canonically resident in this Diocese.
- (8) Any Charge against a Priest or Deacon shall be promptly filed with the President of the Standing Committee.
- (9) Upon the filing of a Charge with the Standing Committee, the Standing Committee shall promptly communicate the same to the Bishop and the Respondent.
- (10) Within thirty (30) days after the filing of a Charge, other than a Charge alleging a conviction in a criminal Court of Record in a cause involving Immorality or alleging the entry of a judgment in a civil Court of Record in a case involving Immorality, it shall be the duty of the Standing Committee, if the Priest or Deacon is canonically resident in the Diocese, to institute an inquiry into the matter. If the conviction or judgment be established, a duly certified copy thereof, the Standing Committee shall issue a Presentment against the Priest or Deacon for Trial.
- (11) Within thirty (30) days after the filing of a Charge with the Standing Committee, other than a Charge alleging conviction in a criminal Court of Record in a case involving Immorality or alleging the entry of a judgment in a civil Court of Record in a case involving Immorality, the Standing Committee shall convene to consider the Charge. If, after such consideration, the Standing Committee determines that an Offense may have occurred if the facts alleged be true, the Standing Committee shall appoint a Church Attorney and shall prepare a written general statement of the Charge and facts alleged to support the Charge and transmit the same to the Church Attorney.
- (12) The Church Attorney shall promptly make such investigation of the matter as the Church Attorney deems appropriate under the circumstances.

- (13) Within sixty (60) days after receipt of the statement from the Standing Committee, unless delayed for good and sufficient cause stated, the Church Attorney shall render a confidential report to the Standing Committee of the findings of that investigation and to whether or not an offense may have been committed if the facts disclosed by the investigation be found to be true upon Trial, and with a recommendation as to the matter in the interest of justice and the good order and discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church and based upon such other matters as shall be pertinent. The Report of the Church Attorney shall be confidential for all purposes as between the Church Attorney and the Standing Committee. Provided, however, the Standing Committee shall share the Report of the Church Attorney with the Bishop of the Diocese and the Chancellor.
- (14) (a) Within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Report of the Church Attorney, the Standing Committee shall convene to consider the Report and determine whether or not a Presentment shall issue.
- (b) In its deliberations, the Standing Committee may consider the Church Attorney's Report, responsible writing or sworn statements pertaining to the matter, including expert's statement, whether or not submitted to it by the Church Attorney.
- (c) The Standing committee shall issue a Presentment for an Offense when the information before it, if proved at Trial, provides Probable Cause to believe (i) an Offense was committed, and (ii) the Respondent committed the offense.
- (15) Prior to the issuance of a Presentment or a determination not to issue a Presentment, as the case may be, the matter shall be confidential except as may be determined to be pastorally appropriate by the Ecclesiastical Authority.
- (16) Upon the issuance of a Presentment or the determination that a Presentment will not issue, all further proceedings of the Standing Committee in the matter shall cease and terminate.
- (17) Non-compliance with time limits set forth in this Canon shall not be grounds for the dismissal of a Presentment unless such non-compliance shall cause material and substantial injustice to be done or seriously prejudice the rights of a Respondent as determined by the Trial Court on motion and hearing.

Section 5. The Ecclesiastical Trial.

- (1) The Chancellor shall be responsible for coordinating the actions of the Standing Committee, the Ecclesiastical Court, the Church Attorney and the counsel of the parties up to the time of the swearing in of the Trial Court. No communications with the Bishop shall be made by the Standing Committee, the Court, the Church Attorney, counsel for the respondent, the Lay Advisor, or any witness summoned to appear in the trial with regard to the investigation or the trial of a respondent except through the Chancellor.
- (2) Before pleading to the merits, all exceptions to the personnel of the court, to the venue of the trial, or the presentment, or any charge, specification or count thereof, or plea in abatement, shall be presented, urged, and determined by the Court before proceeding to hear the case on the merits. Should the accused neglect or refuse to appear or to answer in person or by counsel, in accordance with the notice served on him/her, as aforesaid, except for some reasonable cause to be allowed by the Court, they shall proceed to announce him/her in contumacy, and notify him/her that sentence of suspension or deposition will be pronounced against him/her at the end of three months, unless within that time he/she tenders himself/herself ready, and accordingly appear and take his/her trial on the presentment. But if the accused shall not tender himself/herself before the expiration of the said three months, sentence of suspension or deposition from the ministry may be recommended by the Court to be pronounced against him/her by the Bishop.
- (3) It is hereby declared to be the duty of all members of the Church to attend and give evidence, when duly summoned by the Court, to do so, in any Ecclesiastical trial or investigation under authority of the Church. in case there is ground to suppose that the attendance of any witness on the trial cannot be obtained, it shall be lawful for either party to apply to the Court, if in session, and if not, to any member thereof, who shall thereupon approve the taking of the deposition in accordance with Rule 30 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as they may apply to the Ecclesiastical trial. The testimony of such witness shall be taken upon oath or affirmation, and shall be transmitted to the court under seal; but no deposition shall be read at the trial unless the Court has reasonable assurance that the attendance of the witness cannot be procured, or unless both parties consent that it be read.

- (4) The Lay Assessor shall administer all oaths to WITNESSES. The oath to be administered orally to each witness at the trial, or before examination by deposition shall be as follows:

I do solemnly call God to witness that the evidence I am about to give shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help me God.

At the option of the Presiding Judge, or a majority of its members if there be objection, any witness may be permitted "to affirm" rather than swear, provided such affirmation is of a solemn nature and regarded as the equivalent of an oath.

- (5) If on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges as stated in the presentment, the Court may dispense with hearing further evidence and proceed to tender judgment; but if he/she shall appear and proceed to trial on the presentment, the Court shall adjudge him/her guilty or not guilty, according to the evidence. If he/she be found guilty, the Court shall declare to the Bishop to what ecclesiastical censure he/she ought, in their judgment, to be subjected. The Lay Advisor shall also inform the accused of his/her right to appeal to the Court of Review as provided for in the National Canons.
- (6) All trials hereunder shall be subject to the Canons of The Episcopal Church. The Secretary shall keep a record of all of the proceedings, which shall contain a copy of the presentment, specifications, notice to the accused, and his/her answer, with the evidence, both oral and written, and the final judgment of the Court. An attested copy of this record, made out by the Secretary, or by the stenographer and certified by the Secretary, shall be forthwith at the conclusion of the trial delivered to the Bishop, who shall in the consideration thereof be authorized to consult with the Chancellor or to appoint a Lay Adviser with the same authority and same duty as the Lay Adviser of the Court, and obtain from him/her when advisable, an opinion on all matters not theological. The Bishop shall also have the same authority in passing upon all motions for a new trial.
- (7) The Ecclesiastical Trial Court shall permit the Respondent to be heard in person and by counsel of the Respondent's own selection. Counsel for the Respondent, and all other Counsel participating in the trial, must be attorneys in good standing, admitted to practice in the State of South Carolina. The Church Attorney and all other counsel participating the trial shall, to the extent practicable, be bound by the Rules of Professional Conduct. (SCACR rule 407). In every Trial the Court may regulate the number of counsel who may address the Court or examine witnesses.
- (8) The Respondent shall be called upon by the Court to plead to the Presentment and the plea shall be duly recorded; and on neglect or refusal of the Respondent to plead, the plea of not guilty shall be entered for the Respondent, and the Trial shall proceed; Provided, that for sufficient cause the Court may adjourn from time to time; and Provided, also, that the Respondent shall, at all times during the Trial, have liberty to be present, and in due time and order to produce testimony and to make a defense.
- (9) In all Ecclesiastical Trials, the Church Attorney appointed pursuant to this Canon shall appear on behalf of the Standing Committee which shall then be considered the party on one side and the Respondent the party on the other. Each Complainant and alleged Victim shall be entitled to be present throughout and observe the Trial and for each to be accompanied by a person of their own choosing and counsel of their own choosing. The Accused shall be entitled to have a person of his/her choice for support, as well as, counsel.
- (10) Before a vote is taken on the findings and in the presence of the Respondent and counsel, counsel for the parties may submit requested proposed instructions. The Presiding Judge of the Ecclesiastical Trial Court, after consultation with the Lay Assessors, shall declare which of the proposed instructions shall be issued and also instruct the members of the Court as to the elements of the Offense and charge them (i) that the Respondent must be presumed to be innocent until the Respondent's guilt is established by clear and convincing evidence, and unless such standard of proof be met the Respondent must be acquitted, and (ii) that the burden of proof to establish the guilt of the Respondent is upon the Church Attorney.

- (11) If the judgment of the Court be "not guilty," the Bishop shall give his/her certificate of acquittal to the accused, embracing a copy of the presentment and specifications, and the accused shall not be subject to a second trial on the same charges or for the same offenses.
- (12) Presumption of Innocence. There is a presumption of innocence until the presumption is overcome by Clear and Convincing evidence.
- (13) Standard of Proof. The standard of proof required to establish an Offense by the Respondent by an Ecclesiastical Trial Court shall be that of Clear and Convincing evidence.
- (14) Burden of Proof. The burden of proof to establish an Offense by a Respondent is upon the Church Attorney.
- (15) Amenability. Priests, and Deacons are amenable for offenses committed by them; a Presbyter Priest or Deacon to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Jurisdiction in which the Priest or Deacon is canonically resident at the time the Charge is made or in which the Offense occurred.
- (16) Service of Notices and Citations. (a). A notice or Citation required by any law of this Church to any Member of the Clergy to appear, at a certain time and place for the Trial of an Offense, shall be deemed to be duly served if a copy thereof be delivered to the person to be served, be left at the person's usual place of abode within the United States as to persons Canonically resident in the United States, or as to persons Canonically resident in countries or territories other than the United States at the person's usual place of abode within the country or territory of residence with a person of suitable age and discretion, or be mailed by certified mail return receipt requested to the person's usual place of abode within the United States or by similar mail service if mailed in a country other than the United States, at least sixty days before the day of appearance named therein, and in case the Member of the Clergy has departed from the United States or other country or territory of Canonical Residence and has not been duly served, if a copy of the Citation be published once a week for four successive weeks in such newspaper printed in the jurisdiction in which the Member of the Clergy is cited to appear as the Ecclesiastical Authority shall designate, the last publication to be three months before the day of appearance. Acceptance of service will render unnecessary any further process of Citation.
- (17) Alternate Ecclesiastical Trial Court. In the event that a Diocese cannot convene an Ecclesiastical Trial Court due to vacancies, declinations to act, absences, resignations, challenges or otherwise or due to the determination by the Standing Committee for good cause shown that change in venue is needed, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall arrange for the Trial to be held by an Ecclesiastical Trial Court of another diocese of that Province reasonably convenient for the parties. The reasonable expenses of the Alternate Ecclesiastical Trial Court shall be the responsibility of the Diocese from which the Presentment has issued.
- (18) Expenses of Parties and Costs of Proceedings. Except as expressly provided in this Title, all costs and expenses of the several parties shall be the obligation of the party incurring them. The record of proceedings of a Diocesan Ecclesiastical Trial Court shall be the expense of the Diocese. The record of proceedings of a Court of Review of a Trial of a Priest or Deacon shall be the expense of the province. The record of proceedings of a Board of Inquiry, the Court for the Trial of a Bishop and the Court of Review of a Trial of a Bishop shall be the expense of the General Convention.
- (19) Privileged Communications. No communication privileged under the law of the state of South Carolina or under applicable federal law shall be required to be disclosed. Further, the secrecy of a confession is morally absolute for the confessor, and must under no circumstances be broken.
- (20) Non-compliance with any procedural requirements set forth in this Title shall not be grounds for the dismissal of any proceeding unless the non-compliance shall cause material and substantial injustice to be done or seriously prejudice the rights of a Respondent as determined by the Court on motion and hearing.
- (21) Former Sentence of Removal. Solely for the purposes of the application of these Canons to persons who have received the pronouncement of the former sentence of removal, the former sentence of removal shall be deemed to have been a Sentence of deposition.

- (22) All proceedings in and before the Ecclesiastical Court shall be numbered sequentially each year and shall bear a caption as follows:

IN THE ECCLESIASTICAL COURT)	CASE NO: 1-(Year)
OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN) SOUTH CAROLINA)
 The Diocese of South Carolina,)
v.)
John T. Chrysostmos,)
Respondent.)

- (22) The record of all proceedings before the Ecclesiastical Court shall be confidential. The original and all copies of the transcript of any proceeding before the Ecclesiastical Court, including but not limited to exhibits, shall upon completion of the proceeding or trial be filed in the diocesan headquarters. No one shall be allowed access to these transcripts and exhibits without the written approval of the Chancellor. The attorney for the Respondent, if there is an appeal from a guilty verdict, shall be entitled to a copy of the transcripts and exhibits, but to the greatest extent practicable, the confidential nature of the record shall be protected by the respondent.
- (23) All proceedings and trials held by the Trial Court shall be closed to the public except for those persons specifically indicated in this Canon to be admitted to open session of the Court.

Section, 6. Inhibitions, Sentences and Appeals.

- (1) (a) The three sentences which may be adjudged by a Trial Court and imposed are Admonition, Suspension, or Deposition.
- (b) A Sentence of Admonition may be imposed (i) after the filing of a Waiver and Voluntary Submission under Canon IV.2, or (ii) after final Judgment by a Trial Court. This Sentence shall be a public Reprimand of the Member of the Clergy for the acts of which convicted after Trial or as set forth in the filing of the Waiver and Voluntary Submission.
- (c) (1) A Sentence of Suspension may be imposed (i) after the acceptance of a Waiver and Voluntary Submission under Canon JV.2, or (ii) after final Judgment by a Trial Court.
- (2) Whenever the Sentence of Suspension shall be adjudged and imposed on a Member of the Clergy, the Sentence shall specify on what terms and on what conditions and at what time the Suspension shall cease.
- (3) Where a Sentence is to be adjudged and pronounced, as a condition of the acceptance discipline under a Waiver and Voluntary Submission, the Ecclesiastical Authority may require the resignation of the Priest or Deacon from ecclesiastical and related secular offices held by that Priest or Deacon upon such terms and conditions as the Ecclesiastical Authority may deem to be appropriate, just and proper.
- (4) The Suspension of a Member of the Clergy from the exercise of the Sacred Ministry shall terminate the Pastoral Relationship unless the Vestry by two-thirds vote requests of the Ecclesiastical Authority within thirty days that the relationship continue. Unless the Pastoral Relationship has been terminated, religious services and sacramental ministrations shall be provided for that Parish as though a vacancy exists in the Office of the Rector. This Section shall not prohibit the application of National Canon IV.2(ii).
- (d) (1) A Sentence of Deposition may be imposed (i) after the acceptance of a Waiver and Voluntary Submission under National Canon JV.2, (ii) after final Judgment by a Trial Court, (iii) when there has been a renunciation under National Canon IV.8, (iv) upon the abandonment of the communion of the Church as set forth in National Canons IV.9 and IV.10, or (v) by the Presiding Bishop pursuant to National Canon IV.11.3(d).

- (2) Upon the pronouncement of a Sentence of Deposition, after Trial or after the acceptance of a Waiver and Voluntary Submission to discipline, all ecclesiastical offices held by the Member of the Clergy deposed, including a rector ship and all ecclesiastical and related secular offices, shall be immediately terminated and vacated.
 - (3) A member of the Clergy deposed from the Sacred Ministry is deposed entirely from the Sacred Ministry.
- (2) A Sentence after final Judgment by a Trial court shall be adjudged by the Trial Court.
 - (3) The Bishop shall both adjudge and pronounce Sentence upon a Priest or Deacon (i) after the acceptance of a Waiver and Voluntary Submission under National Canon IV.2 (ii) when there has been a renunciation under National Canon IV.8, or, (iii) upon the abandonment of the communion of the Church as set forth in National Canon IV.10.
 - (4)
 - (a) If a Priest or Deacon is liable to Sentence upon Judgment by a Trial Court or upon affirmance of the Judgment by a Court of Review, Sentence shall be imposed by the Bishop of the Diocese in which the original trial of the Respondent was had, or in case such that Bishop is disqualified or there be no Bishop of that jurisdiction, by another Bishop at the request of the Standing Committee of that Diocese.
 - (b) If a Priest or Deacon is liable to Sentence upon voluntary submission to discipline under Canon IV.2 of the canons of the Episcopal Church in the United States, Sentence shall be imposed by the Bishop to whom the submission was made.
 - (c) If a Priest or Deacon is liable to Sentence upon renunciation of the ministry of this Church under Canon IV.8, Sentence shall be imposed by the Bishop of the Diocese in which the Respondent is canonically resident, or in case there be no Bishop of that jurisdiction, by another Bishop at the request of the Standing committee of the Diocese.
 - (d) If a Priest or Deacon is liable to Sentence upon abandonment of the communion of this Church under Canon IV.10, Sentence shall be imposed by the Bishop of the Diocese in which the Respondent is canonically resident, or in case there be no Bishop of that jurisdiction, by another Bishop at the request of the Standing committee of the Diocese.
 - (5) No Sentence shall be pronounced by a Bishop upon a Priest or Deacon after final Judgment by a Trial Court until an opportunity has been given to the Respondent and the Church Attorney, to show cause why Sentence should not be pronounced and to offer any matter in excuse or mitigation for the consideration of the Bishop.
 - (6) It shall be lawful for the Bishop to pronounce a lesser Sentence upon a Priest or Deacon than that adjudged by the Trial Court, if the Bishop so choose.
 - (7) The Bishop who is to pronounce Sentence upon a Priest or Deacon, after final Judgment by a Trial Court, shall appoint a time and place for pronouncing the Sentence and shall cause notice thereof in writing to be served upon the Respondent, the Church Attorney, each Complainant, and, unless waived in writing, the Victim in the manner provided in National Canon IV.14.17.
 - (8) Before pronouncing any sentence, the Bishop shall summon the accused and any two or more Priests or Deacons to meet him/her at such a time as in his/her opinion may be most convenient, in some Church, to be designated by him/her, which shall for that purpose be opened at the time to all persons who choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. No sentence shall be pronounced until the expiration of thirty days after the Bishop shall have been notified of the decision of the Court; nor in case an appeal is taken to the Court of Review provided by the Canons of The Episcopal Church shall sentence be pronounced, pending the hearing and determination thereof.

- (9) When the Sentence is pronounced, the Bishop who pronounces it shall give notice thereof without delay in writing to every Member of the Clergy, each Vestry and the Secretary of the Convention and the Standing Committee of the Diocese in which the person so sentenced was canonically resident and in which the Sentence is pronounced, which shall be added to the official records of each Diocese; to the Presiding Bishop, to all other bishops of this Church, and where there is no Bishop, to the Ecclesiastical Authority of each Diocese of this Church; to the Recorder; and to the Secretary of the House of Bishops, who shall deposit and preserve such the notice among the archives of the House. The notice shall specify under what Canon the Priest or Deacon has been suspended or deposed.

Section 7. General Provisions

- (1) Ecclesiastical Nature. Disciplinary proceedings under this Canon are neither civil nor criminal, but ecclesiastical in nature and represent determinations by this Church of who shall serve as Members of the Clergy of this Church and further represent the policy and order of this hierarchical Church. Clergy who have voluntarily sought and accepted ordination in this Church have given their express consent and subjected themselves to the discipline of this Church and may not claim in proceedings under this Canon constitutional guarantees afforded to citizens in other contexts.
- (2) Resort to secular courts. No Member of the Clergy of this Church may resort to the secular courts for the purpose of delaying, hindering or reviewing any proceeding under this Canon.
- (3) Reviews of proceedings by secular courts. No secular court shall have authority to review, annul, reverse, restrain or otherwise delay any proceeding under this Canon.
- (4) Limitations of Actions.
 - (a) (1) No Presentment shall be made for any Offense specified in National Canon IV.1.1 that constitutes (a) Crime, (b) Immorality or (c) Conduct Unbecoming a Member of the Clergy, unless the Offense was committed within, or continued up to ten years immediately preceding the time of receipt of a Charge by the Standing Committee or the Presiding Bishop except: (i) in the case of a conviction of the Respondent in a criminal Court of Record or a judgment in a civil Court of Record in a cause involving Immorality, a Presentment may be made at any time within three years after the conviction or judgment becomes final; (ii) in a case where the alleged Victim was a minor at the time of the Offense, a Charge may be made at any time prior to the alleged Victim's attaining the age of twenty-five years; or (iii) if an alleged Victim entitled to bring a Charge is otherwise under a disability at the time the Offense occurs, or (iv) if the Offense is not discovered or its effects realized during the ten years immediately following the date of the Offense, the time within which the Charge shall be received by the Standing Committee shall be extended to two years after the disability ceases or the alleged Victim discovers or realizes the effects of the occurrence of the Offense, provided, however, in the case of clauses (iii) or (iv) above, the time within which the Charge shall be received by the Standing Committee shall not be extended beyond fifteen years from the date the Offense was committed or continued.
 - (2) The time limits of this Section shall not apply to Offenses the specifications of which include physical violence, sexual abuse or sexual exploitation, if the acts occurred when the alleged Victim was a Minor.
 - (3) For Offenses, the specifications of which include physical violence, sexual abuse or sexual exploitation, which were barred by the 1991 Canon on Limitations (National Canon IV.1.4.) Charges may be made to a Standing Committee or the Presiding Bishop, in the case of a Bishop, no later than July 1, 1998.
 - (4) Except as provided in clauses (2) and (3) of this Section, these Limitations of Actions shall not be effective retroactively but shall be effective only from the effective dates of this Canon forward.
- (b) No Presentment shall issue for any Offense specified in National Canon IV.1.1. (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), (h) or (i) unless the Offense was committed within, or continued up to, two years immediately preceding the time of the Charge is filed with the Standing Committee.

- (c) Periods in which the Respondent is in the custody of secular authorities shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation prescribed in this Canon, if that custody would prevent the Respondent from participating in an Ecclesiastical Trial.
- (5) Materiality. In order for the Offenses specified in National Canon IV.1.1. (d), (e), (f) and (g) to be considered for Presentment, the Offense complained of must be intentional, material and meaningful as determined by the Standing Committee.
- (6) Time.
 - (a) Computation. In computing any period of time the day of the act or event from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. The last day of the period shall be included, unless it is a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday in that jurisdiction, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday in that jurisdiction.
 - (b) Additional Time after Service by Mail. Whenever a party has the right or is required to do an act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice or other paper, if service is served by mail, five days shall be added to the prescribed period.
- (7) Quorum. In all cases in this Canon where a Canon directs a duty to be performed or a power to be exercised, by the Standing Committee, by a Trial Court or by any other body consisting of several members, a majority of the members, the whole having been duly cited to meet, shall be a quorum; and a majority of the members present when a quorum exists shall be competent to act, unless otherwise expressly required by Canon.
- (8) Influencing proceedings. No person subject to the authority of this Church may attempt to coerce or by any other means improperly influence, directly or indirectly, the actions of the Standing Committee, an Ecclesiastical Trial Court, any other Court or Board of Inquiry provided for in these Canons, or any member thereof or any person involved in such proceedings in reaching the issuance of any Presentment or the findings, Verdict or Sentence of any Trial Court or any review thereof. The foregoing provisions shall not apply with respect to (i) statements and instructions given by the Chancellor, Church Attorney, the Respondent, or counsel for a Respondent to the Standing Committee prior to Presentment or to the Ecclesiastical Trial Court, or by Lay Assessors of any Court, (ii) sworn testimony or instruments submitted by witnesses or experts during the course of any disciplinary proceedings, or (iii) statements given by Complainants, alleged Victims or their Advocates as provided for in this Canon. Violation of this section shall be deemed to be conduct unbecoming any person subject to the authority of this Church.
- (9) Involuntary Statements.
 - (a) No person proceeding under the authority of this Canon may interrogate, or request a statement from a Respondent or a person suspected of an Offense without first informing that person of the nature of the accusation and advising that person that no statement need be made regarding the Offense of which the Respondent is accused or suspected and that any statement so made may be used in evidence against that person in any Ecclesiastical Trial.
 - (b) No Respondent or a person suspected of an Offense may be compelled to incriminate himself/ herself or respond to any question the answer to which may tend to incriminate him/ her or to testify against himself/ herself in any proceedings under this Canon.
 - (c) No statement obtained from any person in violation of this Canon, or through the use of coercion, undue influence or improper inducement may be received in evidence against that person in a Trial under this Canon. However, any relevant statement determined to have been voluntarily made to any person, and not otherwise protected by the seal of the confession or by the attorney client privilege, shall be admissible.
 - (d) No Advocate shall be required to respond to any question regarding any Complainant or alleged Victim.

CANON XXX
Prohibiting the Desecration of Consecrated Buildings and the Alienation of Church Property Without Consent of the Ecclesiastical Authority and the Standing Committee

Section 1. It shall not be lawful for any Vestry, Trustees or other body authorized by laws of any State or Territory to hold property for any Diocese, Parish or Congregation, to encumber or alienate any dedicated and consecrated Church or Chapel, or any Church or Chapel which has been used solely for Divine Service, belonging to the Parish, Mission or Congregation which they represent, without the previous consent of the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

Section 2. No dedicated and consecrated Church or Chapel shall be removed, taken down, or otherwise disposed of for any worldly or common use, without the previous consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee.

Section 3. Any dedicated and consecrated Church or Chapel shall be subject to the trust declared with respect to real and personal property held by any Parish, Mission, or Congregation as set forth in this Canon.

Section 4. No Vestry, Trustee, or other body, authorized by Civil or Canon law to hold, manage, or administer property for any Parish, Mission, Congregation or Institution, shall encumber or alienate the same or any part thereof without the written consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee of this Diocese; provided, however, that these restrictions on the sale, mortgaging and leasing of real property other than consecrated Churches or Chapels shall not apply to leases of less than one (1) year or to real property used for sepulture.

Section 5. All real and personal property held by or for the benefit of any Parish, Mission, or Congregation is held in trust for the Episcopal Church and the Diocese. The existence of this trust, however, shall in no way limit the power and Authority of the Parish, Mission, or Congregation existing over such property so long as the particular Parish, Mission, or Congregation remains a part of, and subject to, the Episcopal Church and the Diocese.

Title IV

Miscellaneous

The resolution shall then be submitted to the Secretary of the Convention not less than thirty (30) days prior to the convening of the Convention. Any late resolution submitted after the time of Deanery Convocation presentations will not be received unless such resolution or resolutions are submitted in typewritten form with sufficient duplicated copies to provide one (1) copy to each of the officers of the Convention, one (1) copy to every clerical delegate seated in the Convention, and one (1) copy for each delegation of lay delegates from every Parish and Mission seated in the Convention. No resolution shall thereafter be submitted to the Convention for adoption unless permission of the Convention be granted by a majority vote of the Convention.

All resolutions submitted to the Secretary of the Convention thirty (30) days prior to the convening of the Convention shall be distributed to the Deputies by the Secretary prior to the convening of the Convention. All resolutions submitted less than thirty (30) days prior to the convening of the Convention shall be distributed to delegates upon their introduction.

- (11) Preliminary report of Committee on Constitution and Canons.

Rule 2. The service for the opening of the Convention on every day succeeding the first day shall be at the discretion of the Bishop, and every day's session shall be closed with appropriate prayers, offered by the President.

When the President shall have taken the chair, the daily order of proceedings after the first day shall be:

- (1) The reading and approval of the minutes of the previous day's session.
- (2) Calling the names of members absent on the preceding day.
- (3) Elections, in the order called for in the Order of Business previously adopted.
- (4) Reports to be called for in the following order:
 - a. Committee on Dispatch of Business.
 - b. Committee on Finance for the Convention.
 - c. Committee on Constitution and Canons.

(5) Order of Business as adopted from the report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business.

Rule 3. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

Rule 4. When the President shall take the chair, no member shall continue standing, or shall afterward stand up, unless to address the Chair.

Rule 5. The delegation of each Church shall sit together.

Rule 6. No member shall absent himself from the Convention unless he hath to leave or be unable to attend.

Rule 7. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Convention, he shall rise from his seat, and without advancing shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself to the point in debate, and avoid personality.

Rule 8. A question being once determined shall stand as the judgment of this Convention, and shall not again be drawn into debate during the same session, except upon a motion to reconsider which may be moved and seconded by any member who voted in the majority.

Rule 9. No member shall speak more than twice on the same question, without leave of the Convention.

Rule 10. When the President is putting the question no one shall hold private discourse, stand up, walk into, out of or across the Church.

Rule 11.

(a) In voting by ballot the votes shall be deposited with the Tellers, as called for, and no votes shall be received after the Tellers begin to count the votes: PROVIDED, That in voting by Orders the Roll of the Clergy shall be called and their votes deposited with the Tellers FIRST, and immediately thereupon the Roll of the Churches shall be called and their votes deposited with the Tellers. PROVIDED, FURTHER, That in voting, the system known as the Single Transferable Vote may be used when the Convention by a two-thirds majority so orders.

(b) When the votes are collected, they are counted by the tellers, and the result reported to the President, who announces it to the assembly. The President announces the result of the vote, in case of an election to office, in a manner similar to the following: "The whole number of votes cast is __; the number necessary for an election is __; Nominee A received __; Nominee B received __; Nominee C received __. Mr. B, having received the required number is elected--".

(c) When a majority vote is required for an election, on the second and each succeeding ballot all nominees except twice the number of persons to be elected, receiving the highest number of votes on the preceding ballot (including ties), shall be dropped from the ballot.

Rule 12. No motion shall be considered before the Convention unless seconded and reduced to writing, if the President, or any other member require it.

Rule 13.

(a) When pre-filed resolutions have been referred to a committee by the President, then it is presumed that the proper motion has been made and seconded for the adoption of the resolution. If the committee makes its report favorable, then the chair announces that the question is the adoption of the resolution without the necessity of a motion. If the resolution is reported favorable with amendments, then the person making the report must move the adoption of the amendments which are then voted on. After all amendments have been disposed of, then the chair shall, without the necessity of a further motion, state that the question is the adoption of the resolution as amended.

(b) If the report of the committee is unfavorable, then the president shall state the question as follows: "The question is on the adoption of the resolution, the report of the committee to the contrary notwithstanding." If no motion is made, the president may ask if someone will not make such and such a motion stating the proper one, or the chair may state the question without further delay, assuming the proper motion to have been made.

Rule 14. When a question is before the house, no motion shall be received, but to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a certain day, to commit or amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are made. A motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence to a motion to amend and if carried shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution. Subject to these exceptions, the question first moved shall be first put.

Rule 15. Motions to lay on the table and to postpone indefinitely shall be decided without debate and the passage thereof shall require a two-thirds majority, or a two-thirds majority of each order, if a vote by Orders is called for. A motion to take up a matter from the table or to recall it from indefinite postponement shall require a simple majority vote and may be made before the Convention adjourns. A motion to adjourn may interrupt a speech or any other business of the Convention.

Rule 16. No leave of absence shall be definitely granted to any member unless full and sufficient reasons be given by him to the Convention.

Rule 17. All special committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

Rule 18. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which he is immediately and personally interested, or in any case where he was not present when the question was put.

Rule 19. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgress the rules of the Convention the President shall, or any member may, call to order; in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance, without debate, by the President, but any member may appeal from such decision to the Convention and on such appeal no member shall speak more than once, without leave of the Convention.

Rule 20. The President shall have the right to name a member to perform the duties of the chair, but the substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment.

Rule 21. At any convention called for the purpose of electing a Bishop diocesan, Coadjutor, Suffragan, or Assistant the process of nomination shall be as follows:

(1) All nominations shall be made to the convention by the President of the Standing Committee with the advice of the Search Committee.

(2) All petitions to nominate a candidate for the office of bishop shall be submitted to the Search Committee appointed for the purpose of advising the Standing Committee regarding nomination of candidates no later than forty-five (45) days before the date set for the convening of the convention called to elect a bishop. The Search Committee has the authority both to seek and receive nominations. No petitions shall be received after that date and no nominations shall be in order in the convention after that date. The Search Committee and the Standing Committee shall have full discretion in determining the number of nominees which shall be considered by the convention.

(3) The petition shall state that the petitioners believe that the candidate being nominated is duly qualified and shall be signed by 5 clergy persons and 5 delegates elected to participate in the convention.

(4) The petition shall be signed by the person being nominated stating the following:

(a) That he or she consents to being nominated and verily believes that he or she is duly qualified to be nominated for the office of bishop and knows of no impediment to being consecrated.

(b) That he or she consents to a background check to verify his or her qualification.

(c) That he or she consents to a medical and licensed psychiatrist examination to verify his or her qualification to undertake the work for which he or she may be chosen.

(d) That he or she consents to participation in a "walk around" to be scheduled in advance of the convention in order to give delegates to the convention the opportunity to see and talk with the person being nominated.

(5) The name and address of the chairperson of the Search Committee will be given in the notice for the calling for the convention to elect a bishop.

(6) A person is duly qualified to be on the slate for election having met the following criteria:

(a) They have been nominated by the Search Committee.

(b) They have accepted the nomination, in writing

(c) They have signed a document that states they have no known impediment that would prevent them from serving.

(d) They have had and passed a background check.

(e) They have had and passed the psychiatric exam, administered by the person who has been selected by the Search Committee and Standing Committee.

(f) They accept the requirement to participate in the walk around so that delegates have ample opportunity to come to know them. No one shall be elected bishop who has not participated in the walk around.

(7) The Search Committee shall publish to the delegates in writing the names of those persons being recommended to the Standing Committee not less than thirty (30) days before the date of the convening of the Convention. A petition candidate whose name has been previously submitted to the Search Committee and not included on those recommended to the Standing Committee may be included by the Standing Committee, in its discretion, as a nominee upon the appeal of at least three (3) clergy and three (3) delegates whose names appear on the petition previously filed with the Search Committee. This appeal and request for inclusion shall be filed with the Standing Committee in writing not less than fifteen (15) days before the convening of the Convention in order to allow for participation of all nominees in the "walk around". The decision of the Standing Committee as to the names and number of persons being nominated to the Convention shall be final. The "walk around" shall not be scheduled until after the appeal, if any has been concluded.

Rule 22. None of the Rules of Order shall be suspended without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

Rule 23. The foregoing Rules of order may be read at the opening of every Convention, and shall be of force, unless repealed by a vote of the Convention and shall not be altered but by a vote of two-thirds of both Orders, after one day's notice of the proposed alteration.

Rule 24. Roberts Rules of Order shall govern the proceedings for this Convention except as otherwise provided by the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese and of the General Convention, and by these Rules of Order.

Rule 25. No Standing Resolution adopted by this Convention shall be repealed or amended except by a two-thirds vote of this Convention.

CANONXXXII Of the State of the Church

A Committee of the State of the Church, consisting of one clergyman and one layperson from each Deanery, shall be appointed by the Bishop to hold office for three (3) years, with power to sit between sessions of the Convention, provided however: that upon the expiration of the terms of office of the present members, the Bishop shall appoint three (3) persons for terms of three (3) years; three (3) persons for terms of two (2) years; and four (4) persons for a one (1) year term, and thereafter for terms of three (3) years so that the terms of office shall be on a staggered basis. The Bishop shall submit to this Committee the annual reports of the Parishes and Missions furnished him. Based on the reports, and all other sources of information, including the Bishop's Address, the Committee shall study the spiritual and material condition of the Church in the Diocese and report to the Convention annually making such recommendation as they deem advisable for furtherance of the Church's work.

CANON XXXIII Of Expenses

Section 1. On or before the 15th day of December each year, every Parish and Mission shall, on a form furnished by the Diocese, make a pledge to the support of the program of the Diocese for the following calendar year, and forward such pledge to the Diocesan Treasurer.

Section 2. Net Disposable Budget Income (hereinafter NDBI) shall consist of all undesignated plate and pledge offerings plus all other unrestricted income (including investment and endowment income) but shall not include any income received as aid from the Diocese.

Section 3. The form furnished by the Diocese shall provide space to indicate the specific percentage of the Parish's or Mission's NDBI for the following calendar year that is being pledged to the support of the Diocesan program, the Parish's or Mission's anticipated NDBI for the following calendar year, and the dollar amount that the Parish or Mission anticipates giving to the Diocese as a result of the percentage indicated.

Section 4. The pledge of each Parish and Mission to the support of the program of the Diocese shall be payable on a monthly basis.

CANON XXXIV Of Business Methods in Church Affairs

In the Diocese and in each Parish and Mission therein, the following standard business methods shall be observed:

Section 1. Trust and permanent funds and all securities of whatsoever kind shall be deposited with a National or State Bank, or a Diocesan institution or agency, or with some other agency, including Savings and Loan Associations, approved in writing by the Department of Finance of the Diocese, under either a trust instrument or an agency agreement, providing for at least two signatures on any order of withdrawal of such funds or securities. Securities may be held in a Bank Safe Deposit Box.

Section 2. Records shall be made and kept of all trust and permanent funds showing at least the following:

- (1) Source and date of receipt.
- (2) Terms governing the use of principal and income.
- (3) To whom and how often reports of condition are to be made.
- (4) Any limitation on investment policy.

Section 3. Treasurers and custodians, other than banking institutions, shall be adequately bonded; except Treasurers of funds which do not exceed five hundred dollars at any one time during the fiscal year.

Section 4. Books of account shall be kept so as to provide the basis for a satisfactory accounting.

Section 5. All accounts shall be audited annually by a professional accountant or by a committee of two (2) persons who are Communicants of the Mission or Parish appointed by the Vestry or mission committee, none of whom shall have functioned as Treasurer, bookkeeper or held any responsibility for the accounting records during the period under audit.

Section 6. A Certificate of Audit shall be forwarded to the Bishop or Ecclesiastical Authority not later than September 1 of each year, covering the financial reports of the previous calendar year.

Section 7. All buildings and their contents shall be insured against property damage, theft and liability.

Section 8. The Department of Finance of the Diocese may require copies of any and all accounts described in this Canon to be filed with it, and the Department of Finance shall report annually to the Convention upon its administration of this Canon.

CANON XXXV
Use of Non-Canonical Clergy

No Priest who is not canonically resident In this Diocese shall perform any function of his office in this Diocese without first having obtained permission to do so from the Bishop of the Diocese.

CANON XXXVI
Prevention of Sexual Misconduct Within the Diocese

Section 1. Each parish and mission in union with the Diocesan Convention of the Diocese shall adopt a definition of the terms Sexual Misconduct and Pastoral Relationship. In addition to the above definitions of sexual misconduct, the diocese and the congregations thereof affirm that Holy Matrimony is the context for sexual relations and that clergy shall not bless same- gender relationships as Holy Matrimony and they shall not condone same-gender sexual relationships by any official act. Sexual relations outside marriage shall be deemed to be a failure to set a wholesome example to other members of the church.

Section 2. Each Parish and Mission in union with the Diocesan Convention shall adopt a manual (referred to hereafter in this Canon XXXVI as the "Manual") that outlines standards of conduct to be maintained and procedures to be followed for the purpose of preventing Sexual Misconduct by any clergy, employees or volunteers of the Parish or Mission.

Section 3. The standards and procedures set forth in the Manual shall be followed by the Parish or Mission as long as it is in union with the Diocesan Convention of the Diocese .

Section 4. The Manual shall include at a minimum the following:

- a) The definitions of Sexual Misconduct and Pastoral Relationship which have been adopted in accordance with Section 1;
- b) A statement of specific behavioral standards that proscribe such Sexual Misconduct;
- c) Requirements of strict prohibition of interaction with children and youth by anyone with a civil or criminal record of child sexual abuse or who has admitted prior sexual abuse or anyone known to have a paraphiliac diagnosis (e.g., pedophilia, exhibitionism, voyeurism) as defined by the American Psychiatric Association;
- d) Outline of procedures for the investigation of allegations of Sexual Misconduct that conform to the disciplinary Canons of the Episcopal Church and demonstrate sensitivity to the complainant and seek justice for all parties;
- e) Statement of procedures, commensurate with the offense, for discipline and professional rehabilitation after an evaluation of evidence indicates Sexual Misconduct, including:
 - i. consultation between the appropriate institutional executive and appropriate bodies for possible disciplinary action, and
 - ii. professional rehabilitation assessment by a credentialed professional.

Section 5. Each Parish and Mission shall comply with the following procedures:

- a) It shall keep on file signed statements by all of its clergy, volunteers who regularly supervise youth activities, vestry members, and employees that each party has received the Manual and understands its contents;
- b) It shall make reasonably thorough background checks of all clergy, volunteers who regularly supervise youth activities (excluding unpaid Sunday School teachers), and employees, within the confines of permissible law, prior to ordination, employment, or acceptance into this Diocese (either initial licensing or accepting a letter dimissory) to determine current or historic Sexual Misconduct allegations, criminal records or paraphiliac behavior. Such background checks will include inquiries of all bishops having past or present canonical authority over the individual, all schools attended by the individual during the past five years, and all employers of the individual

- during the past five years. If the individual has had one employer for over five years, then inquirers will be made of the two most recent employers;
- c) It shall require that, within six months of employment, all clergy, volunteers who regularly supervise youth activities (excluding unpaid Sunday School teachers) and employees must receive a minimum of four hours of initial training on issues of child sexual abuse in church settings. In addition, it shall distribute to all of its clergy, volunteers who regularly supervise youth activities, vestry members and employees, a summary (which will have been prepared by the chancellor of the Diocese) of current child abuse statutes and reporting requirements for the South Carolina legal jurisdiction;
 - d) It shall require that, within six months of employment, all clergy and employees (excluding clerical and maintenance workers) must receive a minimum of four hours of initial training on issues of sexual harassment in employment, mentor and colleague relationships and sexual exploitation in pastoral relationships; and
 - e) It shall require that clergy and other pastoral care providers must have ongoing professional supervision or must refer the individual to professional counseling after six sessions have been held around a given life issue, and fees or donations for pastoral care will be proscribed. Anyone charging fees for counseling outside the scope of church employment must possess appropriate professional credentials and proof of separate professional liability insurance, including coverage for Sexual Misconduct, in force at all time.

Section 6. Each Parish and Mission shall adopt and comply with the following procedures whenever an evaluation of evidence indicates Sexual Misconduct by an individual:

- a) It shall notify the Bishop of this Diocese and the members of its Parish vestry or Mission council; and
- b) Prior to the individual's being eligible for future or continuing employment by any Parish or Mission in this Diocese, there shall be:
 - i. a professional rehabilitation assessment by a credentialed professional approved by the Bishop of this Diocese,
 - ii. if the individual in question is ordained clergy, endorsement by the Bishop of this Diocese and the Bishop of canonical residence (if different), and
 - iii. a requirement that the offender make amends to any aggrieved parties to the satisfaction of his or her ecclesiastical superior.

Section 7. Each Parish vestry and Mission council shall by formal motion adopt its Manual and shall certify in writing to the Diocesan Headquarters that it has done so. No votes at the Diocesan Convention of this Diocese shall be received from any Parish or Mission which has failed, prior to the convening of the convention in 1996, to comply with the requirements of this Canon. Failure to comply for more than two (2) years shall be grounds for the Diocesan Bishop or Ecclesiastical Authority to declare a Parish or Mission no longer to be in union with the Diocesan Convention.

CANON XXXVII

Of the Enactment, Alteration and Repeal of Canons

Section 1. No alteration, amendment of or addition to these Canons shall be made unless the same be proposed on the first day of an Annual Convention in writing and in duplicate, and, after reference to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, is adopted by a two-thirds vote of both Orders present at the Annual Convention the proposal is made, PROVIDED, however, if the vote by Orders fails to pass either Order by the required two-thirds vote, but does pass both Orders by a majority vote, then the proposal shall lie over for the consideration of the next Annual Convention and only a majority vote of the next Annual Convention shall be sufficient for its passage.

Section 2. In all cases of future enactment, the same if by way of amendment, shall be in the following form: "Canon- (or section of Canon) is hereby amended so as to read as follows":

Section 3. All former Canons of this Convention not included in these Canons are hereby repealed.
