Section 2. The Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese shall have power to call a special meeting of the Convention by giving at least thirty (30) days' notice to every bishop, priest, and deacon entitled to a seat in the Convention, and to every parish and mission in the Diocese in union with the Convention. Such meeting shall be held when and where the authority so calling it shall determine. At such meeting no other business shall be transacted than that specified in the notice so calling said meeting. Whenever a special meeting of Convention is called for the purpose of electing a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor, or Bishop Suffragan, lay delegates from the several parishes and organized missions in union with Convention shall be elected after the call has been issued for such special meeting.

Section 3. If, in the judgment of the Ecclesiastical Authority, there exists sufficient cause to require a change of time or place for the meeting of a Convention either annual or special, the ecclesiastical authority may designate another time or place of holding such meeting. Any such meeting shall be held within 30 days after the time originally designated and after notice to every bishop, priest, and deacon, and parish and mission in the Diocese entitled to seat in the Convention.

Procedures Pertaining to Conventions

Section 1. Each parish and mission in union with the Convention shall be entitled to lay representation in the Convention. A parish shall be represented by not more than four laypersons and a mission shall be represented by not more than two laypersons. The election of said lay delegates shall take place in each parish and each mission in union with the Convention, by ballot, from among the confirmed adult communicants in good standing, at a meeting of the members thereof. An equal number of lay delegates may be elected to serve as alternates or substitutes for such lay delegates so elected. A parish or mission shall not be entitled to vote if it has not filed its Parochial Reports by the February 1st preceding the Convention, unless they be accorded such privilege by a majority vote of the Convention.

Section 2. Except as otherwise provided, the terms of office of delegates so elected shall continue until their successors are elected. Each parish and mission shall file a report naming the delegates and alternate delegates with the secretary of the Convention at least thirty days prior to the Convention.

Section 3. The presiding officer of the Convention shall call on the Credentials Committee for a report of the clerical and lay delegates entitled to seat, voice and vote at the Convention.

Section 4. When the Convention shall have been called to order, the list of the Clergy of the Convention shall be presented to the Convention, and the names of the clerical members shall be called by the Secretary. Immediately thereafter the secretary shall proceed to call the names of the lay delegates. If a quorum is found present, the presiding officer shall declare the Convention duly organized. Provided, however, that if the clerical and lay delegates have been registered on the opening day of the Convention and such registration is then in the hands of the secretary, said roll calls may be dispensed with. If a question be made, the right of any clerical or lay delegates shall be determined according to the provisions of this Constitution.

If a separate vote by Orders is requested, the clergy shall vote individually and the lay delegates by churches (a majority from each parish having one vote and each mission having one-half vote). A majority vote of both Orders shall, in each case, be necessary for a decision.

Section 7.2. In the election of a Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor or Bishop Suffragan, the vote shall be by written or electronic ballot, and by Orders. A concurrent majority of both Orders is necessary to elect a Bishop. Provided, however, that two-thirds of all the clergy entitled to vote and two-thirds of all the parishes and missions entitled to representation be present; otherwise, two-thirds of the vote of each Order present shall be necessary to determine a choice.

They shall serve at the pleasure of the Bishop and have such duties as shall be as prescribed by the Bishop, the Constitution, Canons, resolutions, and Rules of Order of both the Convention of this Diocese and of the General Convention. In case there be no Bishop to act as the ecclesiastical authority, then the Standing Committee shall appoint the officers and staff to serve at its pleasure or until there be a Bishop, with ecclesiastical authority.

Section 2.2. Said application may state such facts as the applicant deems pertinent, but it must state:

- b. The facts of applicant's organization in accordance with the Canons of the Diocese and its continued existence thereunder for at least one year.

The charter shall contain the provisions required for the organization of a parish under Canon 3. Upon the incorporation of the mission, the Bishop, or a priest under his/her direction, shall appoint a warden, who shall always be a confirmed communicant, and a secretary and treasurer, from among the members of the mission. These officers shall be appointed annually on the second Monday in each succeeding January and shall continue in office until their successors are appointed. The Bishop may appoint a priest-in-charge of the mission, withdraw the priest so appointed at any time, and may appoint another.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the warden to procure a suitable place for public worship and provide things necessary for the decent and orderly performance of Church services.

One executed copy shall be filed in the Office of the Register of Deeds in the applicant's county. - h. A statement of the parish's willingness to conform to The Episcopal Church and the Constitution and Canons of the Convention of this Diocese, which are, or thereafter may be, enacted by the authority of the Diocese.

Section 3. The corporate charter for every parish must contain the provision that the corporation is formed for the purpose of operating a parish or mission, organized pursuant and subject to the Canons of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina now in force or as hereafter amended. The corporate charter must also provide that if the corporation is dissolved that the real and personal property of the parish or mission shall become the property of The Episcopal Church in South Carolina.

Section 4. All parishes that hold any real property with reverter clauses to the grantor or other persons in the real property title shall make every effort to remove the possibility of such future reversion. No parish shall acquire real property that contains a reversion clause in the title to the property. Notwithstanding this restriction, if either the Diocese, the Trustees of the Diocese, or an entity controlled by either of them shall convey real property to a parish or mission, then the deed of conveyance shall contain a reverter clause, which shall provide substantially as follows: Provided, however, that if at any time the parish/mission shall dissolve, liquidate, close, become or be declared dormant, attempt to disassociate or otherwise disaffiliate its relationship from this Episcopal Diocese and The Episcopal Church, or otherwise cease to be a functioning Episcopal organization, then and in that event, title to this real property shall immediately and automatically revert to The Episcopal Church in South Carolina, or in default thereof, to The Episcopal Church.

Section 5. If the Bishop is satisfied that the mission, if organized as a parish, will be self-supporting and, that all of the requirements of this Canon have been met, the Bishop shall organize the mission as a parish.

Section 6. Prior to such new applicant being formally accepted as a parish in communion with Diocese, such applicant parish must, after taking all required corporate and/or Board/Vestry action, execute a Commitment of Affirmation (see “Exhibit A”) that the applicant parish will remain in conformity with the Constitution and Canons, doctrine, discipline, and worship of The Episcopal Church and of this Diocese, and to the rules regulating such parishes. Such Commitment of Affirmation must state that such obligations, commitments, and requirements are irrevocable. The Commitment of Affirmation must be properly executed in duplicate by the officers of the applicant parish and be in the form appropriate for filing in the Office of the Register of Deeds. One executed copy shall be filed in the Office of the Register of Deeds in the applicant’s county. After recording the original, executed, and filed document shall be delivered to the office of the Bishop of the Diocese. The other executed copy shall be retained as part of the permanent records of the applicant.

CANON 4

Parishes and Missions in Union With Convention

Section 1. It shall be the duty of every parish or mission in union with the Convention to send at least one delegate to every Convention.

Section 2. At the annual meeting of the parish or mission, any member may nominate as delegates to the next annual Convention of the diocese the senior warden or the junior warden, separately by title with the words appended to the nomination “or his/her successor.” That title shall appear on the ballot as a nominee and the nomination shall be treated as the nomination of a communicant. If nominated, he/she or they shall be voted on and elected by the members of the meeting as though they were named communicants. In complying with this section the name and not the title of any person so elected shall be reported as a delegate to the diocesan Convention. In no case shall either the senior or junior warden of the parish be designated as a delegate unless he or she has been nominated and elected at the annual meeting of the parish in the manner prescribed herein.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of every vestry to forward to the secretary of the Convention following the annual parish meeting, but no later than thirty (30) days prior to the next annual Convention, a certificate, signed by the rector, the secretary of the vestry, or one of the wardens, in the following form:

The following alternates were elected:

Section 4. It shall be the duty of every parish and mission in union with the Convention to have taken all required corporate and/or Board/Vestry/Committee action, necessary to execute a Commitment of Affirmation (see “Exhibit A”) that the parish or mission will remain in conformity with the Constitution and Canons, doctrine, discipline, and worship of The Episcopal Church and of this Diocese, and to the rules regulating such parishes and missions. Such Commitment of Affirmation must state that such obligations, commitments, and requirements are irrevocable. The Commitment of Affirmation must be properly executed in duplicate by the officers of the applicant parish or mission and be in the form appropriate for filing in the Office of the Register of Deeds. One executed copy shall be filed in the Office of the Register of Deeds in the parish or mission’s county. After recording the original, executed, and filed document shall be delivered to the office of the Bishop of the Diocese. The other executed copy shall be retained as part of the permanent records of the parish or mission.

Section 5. A parish or mission may not leave, indicate an attempt to disassociate from, or otherwise disaffiliate its relationship from the Diocese and therefore with The Episcopal Church. Each parish or mission is in a permanent subordinate relationship to this Diocese and The Episcopal Church. This relationship is irrevocable and may not be changed or otherwise modified by a parish or mission.

Section 6. Every parish or mission shall provide in its bylaws, articles of incorporation, and other governing documents a provision that provides for the following. In the event that the parish or mission shall dissolve, liquidate, close, become or be declared dormant, attempt to disassociate or otherwise disaffiliate its relationship from this Episcopal Diocese and The Episcopal Church, or otherwise cease to be a functioning Episcopal organization, then and in that event, its bylaws, articles of incorporation, and other governing documents shall provide that the assets of such parish or mission shall be transferred to the Diocese, or in default thereof to The Episcopal Church. Each parish or mission shall amend their governing documents to comply with the provisions of this section.

Section 7. A parish or mission may not revoke, amend or otherwise alter its bylaws, articles of incorporation, or other governing documents to attempt to disassociate or otherwise disaffiliate its relationship from this Diocese or from The Episcopal Church, and may make no other amendments without the prior written approval of both the Bishop and the Chancellor of the Diocese. Any changes either made or attempted to be made without such prior approvals shall be null and void.

CANON 5

Dormant Parishes and Missions

Section 1. Whenever it shall occur that an organized parish can no longer provide for the support of a priest, the Bishop shall provide for services in the said parish. Such parish, if in union with the Convention, shall forthwith be entitled only to the privileges of a mission in the Convention, but union with the Convention shall not cease.

Section 2. If any parish or mission shall have failed for three successive years to elect a vestry (if a parish), or to send a delegate to the Convention (if in union with the Convention), or to make the reports required by Title 1, Canon 6, Section I of the General Convention, or to make a financial contribution to the program of the Diocese, such parish or mission shall be considered dormant, and may be dissolved by the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. If any parish or mission shall begin or attempt to disassociate or otherwise disaffiliate its relationship from this Episcopal Diocese and The Episcopal Church, or otherwise cease to be a functioning Episcopal organization, such parish or mission shall be considered dormant and may be dissolved by the Bishop with the consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

Section 3. Dormant parishes or missions may not again be in union with the Convention, except under the provisions of Article VIII of the Constitution.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the ecclesiastical authority to adopt measures necessary to preserve the property of such parishes or missions as may be dormant or virtually extinct. If a dormant parish is not dissolved pursuant to Section 2 of this Article, the ecclesiastical authority may appoint a priest-in-charge for such parish if it be without a priest, which priest may be withdrawn at any time.

CANON 6

Annual Parish or Mission Meetings

Section 1. Not less than 30 days prior to the convening of the next annual Convention each parish or mission shall hold an annual meeting for the purpose of electing wardens, members of the vestry, and lay delegates to the Convention, as provided by the Constitution, and of transacting such other business as may be brought before it. Notice of such annual meeting shall be given by the rector or vicar, or, if there be no rector or vicar, by the vestry with not less than one week's notice. Section 4. The manual shall include at a minimum the following:

Section 4.1 The definitions of “sexual misconduct” and “Pastoral relationship” which have been adopted in accordance with Section 1.

Section 4.2 A statement of specific behavioral standards that proscribe such sexual misconduct.

In addition, it shall distribute to all of its clergy, volunteers who regularly supervise youth activities, vestry members and employees, a summary (which will have been prepared by the chancellor of the Diocese) of current child abuse statutes and reporting requirements for the South Carolina legal jurisdiction.

Section 5.4 It shall require that, within thirty (30) days of employment, all clergy and employees must receive initial training on issues of sexual harassment in employment, mentor and colleague relationships and sexual exploitation in pastoral relationships.

Section 5.5 It shall require that clergy and other pastoral care providers must have ongoing professional supervision or must refer the individual to professional counseling after six (6) sessions have been held around a given life issue, and fees or donations for pastoral care will be proscribed. Rule 4. Voting shall be governed by the following procedures:

- (1) In voting by ballot the votes shall be deposited with the tellers and no votes shall be received after the tellers begin to count the votes. If the vote is by orders, the presiding officer shall first call for a separate voice vote of the parishes and missions and then the clergy. If the presiding officer cannot determine the outcome of the vote, then the presiding officer shall separately call the roll of the parishes and missions and thereafter the roll of the clergy. In each vote their respective votes shall be deposited with the tellers. When a ballot is used, it may be either a written ballot or electronic ballot. In either case the voting procedure shall not identify the specific parish, mission, or member of the clergy casting the ballot.
- (2) When the votes are collected, they shall be counted by the tellers and the result reported to the presiding officer, who shall announce it to the Convention.
- (3) A majority vote is required for an election of individuals. When no individual receives a majority of the total votes cast, on the second and each succeeding ballot all nominee, except twice the number of individuals needed to be elected, shall be dropped from the ballot. Those individuals receiving the highest number of votes on the preceding ballot (including ties) shall be placed on the next ballot. This rule shall not apply to the election of deputies to an upcoming General Convention.
- (4) The election of deputies to an upcoming General Convention shall be by written or electronic ballot. There shall be separate ballots for the clergy deputies and the lay deputies to elect four (4) clerical deputies and four (4) lay deputies and an equal number of alternates. The four (4) candidates with the highest number of votes shall be designated as the deputies. The four (4) candidates with the next highest number of votes shall be designated as the alternate delegates. If there is a tie vote for either the fourth or eighth position, the presiding officer shall decide the tie by chance. Prior to attending the General Convention the eight (8) attending deputies shall meet and elect one of themselves to serve as the delegations chair.

Rule 5. No motion shall be considered before the Convention unless seconded and reduced to writing, if the presiding officer, or any other member requires it.

Rule 6. Matters pertaining to resolutions shall be handled in accordance with the canons and governed by the following procedures.

- (1) When pre-filed resolutions have been referred to a committee by the presiding officer, then it is presumed that the proper motion has been made and seconded for the adoption of the resolution. If the committee makes its report favorable, then the chair announces that the question is the adoption of the resolution without the necessity of a motion. If the resolution is reported favorable with amendments, then the person making the report must move the adoption of the amendments which are then voted on. After all amendments have been disposed of, then the chair shall, without the necessity of a further motion, state that the question is the adoption of the resolution as amended.
- (2) If the report of the committee is unfavorable, then the presiding officer shall state the question as follows: "The question is on the adoption of the resolution, the report of the committee to the contrary notwithstanding." If No motion is made, the presiding officer may state the question, assuming the proper motion to have been made.

Rule 7. When a question is before the house, no motion shall be received, except a motion to i) adjourn, to lay on the table, ii) postpone indefinitely, iii) postpone to a certain day, iv) commit or amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are made. A motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a motion to amend and if carried shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution. Subject to these exceptions, the question first moved shall be first considered.

Rule 8. Motions to table and to postpone indefinitely shall be decided without debate. Passage of such a motion shall be by a two-thirds majority, or a two-thirds majority of each order, if a vote by orders is called for. A motion to take up a matter from the table or to recall it from indefinite postponement shall require a simple majority vote and may be made before the Convention adjourns.

Rule 9. No member shall vote on any question in the event of which the member is immediately and personally interested, or in any case where the member was not present when the question was offered.

Rule 10. Actions taken in Convention shall be final, except upon a motion to reconsider, which may be moved and seconded by any member who voted in the majority.

Rule 11. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, fails to observe the rules of the Convention the presiding officer shall, or any member may, call to order; in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance, without debate, by the presiding officer, but any member may appeal from such decision to the Convention and on such appeal no member shall speak more than once, without leave of the Convention.

Rule 12. The presiding officer shall have the right to name a member to perform the duties of the chair, but the substitution shall not extend beyond an adjournment.

Rule 13. Any Rule of Order may be suspended for that Convention by a majority vote of the members present. These Rules of Order may be amended by a majority vote of the members present.

Rule 14. Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the proceedings for this Convention except as otherwise provided by the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese.
